

briefs

Girls need leaders

Volunteers are needed in Clackamas County as Camp Fire Girl youth-group leaders.

Youth-group leaders spend a couple of hours each week helping children work on outdoor, craft, community action and educational projects. They can also start theatre or dance groups, help girls plan innovative activities, learn skills and get in touch with themselves.

Basic training is provided for interested students 18 or over. Volunteers are also needed in public relations, fund-raising and program development capacities.

Anyone interested call Lucy Cate, 653-2600.

Coordinator named

One of the newest faces in Canby is the new community school coordinator, John Falkenstein.

Falkenstein thinks he has one of the most exciting and far reaching jobs in the area, helping people accomplish what they want to happen in the Canby area.

Presently he needs people to get involved and is meeting with service clubs, setting up neighborhood coffees, and making contacts with organizations.

Interested people should call him at the high school 266-5811 Tuesdays and Wednesdays all day, and Thursday mornings.

Focus on women

"Assertiveness Training for Women" is the topic of the next segment of the Focus on Women series.

This segment will consist of an orientation session which will be followed by two evenings devoted to small group discussion and the practice of assertive behavior.

The orientation session will be held Thursday, Dec. 2, at 7 p.m. in room 117 of the Community Center building and is required for those planning to participate in the small groups.

The small groups will meet on Dec. 7 and 9 at 7 p.m. in CC-117.

All sessions are free.

Joint concert set

The Clackamas Community College Jazz Ensemble and Swing Choir concert will be held Wednesday, Dec. 1 in the Community Center Mall starting at 8 p.m.

The concert is free and the public is invited to come hear what's new on the contemporary music scene.

Exotic plant show

The Oregon Chapter of the Indoor Light Gardening Society of America will present a show of exotic house plants, both flowering and foliage, Saturday Nov. 20, 10:30

HILLTOP ROCKS AND GIFTS
Metal smithing tools and Hand crafted jewelry
125 Molalla Ave., Oregon City
655-3225

Large assortment of agate turquoise and ceramic jewelry

a.m. to 5 p.m., and Sunday, Nov. 21, noon to 5 p.m. at the Western Forestry Center.

The plants will be on display and available for sale to interested students. Slide lectures, clinics and demonstrations are also planned. Money raised by this function will go towards buying garden units for hospitals, nursing homes, institutions and juvenile homes.

Soviet view at PSU

Thursday, Dec. 2, at 7 p.m., Professor Nikolai N. Bolkhovitinov will give a public address at 75 Lincoln Hall, Portland State campus on "A Soviet View of the American Revolution."

Bolkhovitinov is the first Soviet historian ever to teach at an American university. He will be on the PSU campus during fall quarter, 1976.

For further information call 229-3917.

'Eating for two?'

"Eating For Two?" a program designed to teach expectant mothers good nutrition for themselves and their babies, will be held Wednesday, Dec. 1 from 10 a.m. to noon in room 101 of the Community Center building.

The workshop will include a question and answer period and informal discussion on the topic. There is no charge for admission.

Van show slated

Friday, Nov. 26, is student disco at the 1976 Custom Van, Truck, and Wheel Drive Show at the Coliseum.

Any student presenting a student card on that date will receive $1 price of admission.

100 vehicles will be in competition trophies and cash awards. $300 sweepstakes winners in each class.

High school engine assembly contest will be a nightly feature during the five days of the show. First place is worth $250 used by the school.

Scholarship offer

A tuition scholarship is being offered for the winter term by the Oregon City Branch of the Oregon Professional and Business Women's Club.

The scholarship is only open to students who are currently attending college and will be awarded on the basis of merit and academic achievement.

Applications for this scholarship should be picked up in the financial aid office at the Community Center building.

Mars in Brown Bag

Slides and pictures taken by the Mars spacecraft which landed on Mars are shown Tuesday, Nov. 23, at noon in the Clackamas Community College Community Center building. The presentation is part of the Science Brown Bag series coordinated by Mike Aronson.

Portland, Oregon

1976 CUSTOM VAN, TRUCK & AWD SHOW

MEMORIAL COLISEUM
November 24-25-26-27-28
(Thanksgiving Week)

In Person:
From Television's "Rich Man, Poor Man"
KIMBERLY BECK

FLYING EAGLE II
America's most Beautiful Van!

THE GLADIATOR
The Nation's Most Radical Van!

OVER 100 VEHICLES ON DISPLAY!

NOV. 24: 6 to 11 P.M. • NOV. 25: 4 to 11 P.M.
NOV. 26 & 27: 1 to 11 P.M.
NOV. 28: 1 to 9 P.M.

TROPHY PRESENTATION - NOV. 26 at 8 P.M.

FRIDAY IS STUDENT DAY!

Admission $1.00 off with your Student Body Card!

SECOND ANNUAL
Exhaust Specialties
"High School Engine Assembly Contest" Daily!

J. K. Gill "Paint the Van with KPAM" Contest Daily!

Come and see your friends compete with other high schools!

For further information, call 238-8600

