

Theatre department chooses cast for 'Nightwatch'

"It's really neat. You'll never guess 'who wrote it.'" said cast member, Jerry Wheeler of "Night Watch," the CCC theatre department's winter production.

The play is one of those "taut murder mysteries" and was written by Louise Fletcher. Drama instructor Jack Shields will direct the CCC version.

as Blanche Cooke; Jerry Wheeler as Lt. Walker; Garrett Brown as Officer Vanelli; Dee Jarvis as Helga; Virgil Geigle as Curtis Appleby; and Rick Arnold as Sam Hoke.

Elections set

Four new senators will be chosen to serve in the Associated Student Government during their meeting today at 11 a.m. in the residence lounge.

Students interested in serving as a senator should show up for the meeting and inform an ASG member that they wish to have their name placed in nomination.

Michael Ayers will also be announcing his choice for assistant to the president at the meeting and ASG will vote on the matter during their meeting on Jan. 20.

Performances are scheduled for March 3, 4 and 6 in McLoughlin Theatre. The cast will then rehearse another two weeks for a spring vacation booking in Cannon Beach.

For the Cannon Beach performance, Shields has hired a professional actress from New York to play the female lead. Her name is Wendy Dustin. Wheeler reasons "she must be good," because she has been working steadily in a notoriously unsteady profession.

Recently selected cast members are: Joey Rose/Wendy Dustin as Elaine Wheeler; Gerry Damour as John Wheeler; Melissa Iacolucci

Aid available

Work-Study funds are now available to students who have applied for aid earlier this year, had established need, but for whom aid money was not available.

Students wishing to accept College Work-Study as part of their financial aid award should sign up at the Financial Aid Office before Friday, Jan. 14, at 5 p.m.

Money will be allotted to students with highest unmet need first and awards will be made as long as funds last.
