

Bluegrass and country chow highlight hoedown

The Associated Student Government of Clackamas Community College is sponsoring an old-fashioned family hoedown at the Bar 88 Arena in Molalla this Saturday.

The hoedown will be featuring one of the best bluegrass bands in Oregon -- Dr. Corn's Bluegrass Remedy.

One of their many accomplishments was performing on the Today Show, in a program titled "Bicentennial Salute to Oregon." The group also had the distinction of being allowed to play the longest set within a talk show program.

Dr. Corn's Bluegrass Remedy Band has been together for the last six years. For the last four years they have played at Frankensteins, now limiting their performances there to once a month but they are also performing at college concerts throughout Oregon.

A beer garden will be sponsored by the Oregon City Jaycees and the CCC Rodeo

Club will provide plenty of hamburgers, hotdogs, and other "good old country chow."

To find the Bar 88 Arena, take Highway 213 to 211. Turn left on Hwy. 211. Next turn right at Wilhoit Road. From Wilhoit Road turn on to Sawtell Road and travel about three to five miles to the arena.

The cost for the hoedown is $1.50 for non-students and $1 for CCC students. The event will begin at 8 p.m. and last until midnight.

Folk ballet to debut

The National Folk Ballet of Yugoslavia, an award-winning company of 45 dancers, singers and musicians, makes its Portland debut today, March 3, at 8 p.m. in the Portland Auditorium.

Gold medal winners at the Vienna and Moscow World Festivals, the celebrated troupe presents a fast-paced and colorful program rich in the traditions of Yugoslavia.

Supported by a 12-piece ensemble of violins, accordions, guitars, flutes and clarinets, the accomplished dancers take you on a musical travelogue of Yugoslavia. Their superb performance prompted "L'Aurore," Paris, to name them "one of the best folk ensembles in the world."

Under the leadership of artistic director and choreographer Branko Markovich, the National Folk Ballet of Yugoslavia has staged successful tours in 29 countries throughout Europe, Asia, Africa and South and Central America.

Tickets for the Northwest Releasing event are on sale at The Ticket Place at Lipmans (downtown), Stevens and Son, First Federal in Vancouver and the Auditorium.

The end-of-term winter music concert will take place this Sunday, March 6, at 3 p.m. in the CC Mall. The Community Chorus, directed by June Clapp, the Concert Choir, directed by Dan Hoggatt and the Symphonic Band, directed by Gary Nelson, will perform.

calendar

thursday

ASG Meeting. Fireside Lounge, 11 a.m.

"Game." Brown Bag Movie. Noon. CC-117. Free.

Wrist Wrestling Tournament. Randall Gym. Noon.

"Night Watch." CCC Theatre production. McLoughlin Theatre. 8 p.m.

friday

Paradise Alley. Jade Lounge, 875 Molalla Ave., Oregon City. 9 p.m. Also Saturday.

Inner Grinnin'. Doc Holiday's Pub, 1320 Main St. Oregon City. Also Saturday.

"Night Watch." CCC Theatre production. McLoughlin Theatre. 8 p.m.

"The Tempest." University of Portland Mago Hunt Theatre. $2 general, $1 students/senior citizens. 8 p.m. Also Saturday and Sunday. Phone 28-7202.

Country Delight. Whitehorse Lounge, Main St., Molalla. Also Saturday.

weekend

Dr. Corn's Bluegrass Remedy. CCC Hoe-Down Dance. Bar 88 Arena, Molalla. $1 students, $1.50 non-students. 8 p.m. Saturday.

"Night Watch." CCC Theatre production. McLoughlin Theatre. 8 p.m.

Sunday Recreation. Randall Gym. 2:30 to 6:30 p.m. Sunday.

Leon Redbone. Paramount Northwest. $6 advance. Saturday.

monday

Imogen Cunningham photographs 1920-1973. Exhibit at the Portland Art Museum, 1219 SW Park, Portland. Through March 13.

tuesday

Art Show. J.D. Perkin and Paul Schaap. CC Mall. Through March 18.

wednesday

Homemaker Update. Special Parenting Problems. CC-101. 6 to 8 p.m. Also March 15.

