Clackamas Community College yearbooks will be distributed on campus the week of finals week.

The yearbook will be called "The Coyote" and is based on Clackamas Indian legend. It will contain 70 pages and will be a pictorial of the happenings, activities and different academic departments on campus. It will be an improvement over last year's yearbook, said Randy Clark, CCC publications director.

The yearbook will cost 75 cents and will be available at the student activities center, the CCC Bookstore and the Community Center during lunchtime. "We wanted to keep the cost low so people can enjoy it," said Clark.

Hatha Yoga

Workshops on Women at Clackamas Community College will offer a Hatha Yoga workshop on Thursday, June 2, from 7 to 8 p.m. in the Randall Hall gymnasium. The workshop is in shape and learn to relax at the same time with instruction from Sheryl Wallingford. Hatha Yoga concentrates on physical while training the mind and to relax through simple, but effective exercises. The exercises are centered on each person's ability. The workshop fee is $1, and the program is open to all.

Soapmaking

Soapcraft and puppet making will be featured in two Art for Kids workshops sponsored by Clackamas Community College on Saturday, June 4. The programs will be held in the Far West Federal Savings and Loan Community Room in the Oregon Shopping Center from 1 to 4 p.m. The soapcraft workshop will be instructed by Candace Francis, and Kim Lee Kwai will teach puppet making. Cost is fifty cents per child for each workshop. Pre-registration is required through Clackamas Community College. Call Community Services Department, 656-2631, Ext. 232, to register for further information.

Crime report

According to Stan Johnson, head of campus security, a bookkeeping book, being used as a wallet, containing $158 in cash and a $46 food stamp purchase order was stolen from a student's backpack at Orchard Center Room 104, on May 19. The wallet containing $20 and personal papers was stolen from a student's purse at the Orchard Center Student Lounge on May 19. The purse was left in the lounge while the student went to class.

There were 18 tickets given out this week. Eight for parking in the handicapped area, eight for parking in the various loading zones, one for parking in an unauthorized area and one for parking in the cycle zone.

Graduation

Any student who has accumulated enough hours for a certificate or an Associate Degree should petition for graduation with the registrar's office or see a counselor.

To assure participation in the graduation exercise, a student must file a petition.

Graduation is set for June 10 at 7 p.m. in Randall Hall. All students who have already submitted a petition for a certificate or an Associate Degree should have received a letter with all the necessary details about participating in graduation.

Correction

Last week's story on page one titled 'Federal vet law repealed' was incorrect.

Federal Law 94-502 was not repealed. A directive from the Veterans Administration regarding veterans benefits for summer term was rescinded.
