

'Skin Deep' delightful, excellent craftsmanship

Skin Deep is a delightful movie starring John Ritter. It is the story of a novel writing, womanizing, sex maniac who is down on his luck.

This well made film extravaganza is a pleasure to watch and hear. It has a soundtrack and one can hear the actors voices as they move their mouths. Seriously folks, I saw the movie last Saturday, March 24th, and I am a little foggy on some parts of it. I do however remember that I enjoyed it and that the glow-in-the-dark condoms are really funny.

I urge you to go see it because I am sure you will fancy the splendid composition of cinema craftsmanship. Mark Borrelli, sports editor of The Clackamas Print, said this about the film "It was, was killer! I loved it, almost as much as I love the Cubs."

Now onto the Academy Awards. Needless to say my predictions were correct, even my prediction for best costume design: James Acheson. I wanted Martin Scorsese to win for Best Director but I still picked Levinson from Rainman.

Baseball season started Monday, so here are a bunch of baseball movies on video that are quite good. The Pride of the Yankees is the Lou Gehrig story. Out of Control is about Jimmy Piersall. The Natural: Bobby Redford at his dreamy finest. Bull Durham: the story about a man and a woman and a man and a minor league baseball team. Eight Men Out:

the story of the 1919 Chicago White Sox scandal. Baseball Bloopers and Blunders by Sports Illustrated is a compilation of bloopers and blunders in baseball compiled by Sports Illustrated. If you don't have a VCR or can not get to one then you can just watch the real thing on TV.

Next week I'll have the review of Major League, the new baseball movie from Paramount.
