

Cagers head into tournament as tops in the region

by Robert Stubblefield

The Clackamas Women Cougars rode into the NWAACC tournament on a wave of momentum after three convincing victories last week. The Cougs swept a pair from Umpqua and made it a trio with a big win over Lane.

On Tuesday night the Cougars traveled to Albany to face Umpqua in a battle to determine the league championship. Clackamas found the going rough in the first half and fell behind 42-31. They came out strong in the second half shooting 59 percent from the field and cruising to a 81-66 victory.

J.J. Drennen led the Cougars in scoring with 29 points on 13-21 shooting.

"J.J. took over the game in the second half," Coach Phil Garver commented. "They were not able to stop her."

Pam Pember and Alicia Stephenson scored 16 and 15 respectively. Pember led the squad in rebounds with 12.

On Thursday night Clackamas faced Lane in Randall Gym. The Cougars came away with a 89-67 win to complete the first round of the mini-tournament. Drennen once again led the Cougars, scoring 17 and causing problems for the Titan defense all night long. Stephenson scored 16 and cleaned the glass for 13 boards. Angela Hewlett and Kelli Brown had excellent games from the backcourt, Hewlett scoring 12, and Brown dishing off eight assists. Jenny Garner turned in a strong effort off the bench, scoring 11 and grabbing six rebounds.

As if the week hadn't been enough already, the Cougars had to face Umpqua at home on Saturday. Up for grabs was the first place seed in the playoffs. Clackamas led no doubt as to who was number one in the Oregon Region by drubbing the Timberwomen 99-74. Pember was an irresistible force against all movable object. She dominated the inside all night and scored 24 points as well as grabbing a season-high 20 rebounds. Drennen riddled Umpqua for 20 and Hewlett hit for 14. Jean-Marie Lillard came off the bench and poured in 13. Brown led the Cougars in assists with 9.

"I felt like all the starters played well, and we also got a lot of help off the bench," said Garver. "Our bench has played real well in the last five games, and I feel like we're going to Pasco with some momentum," said Garver. Garver was a bit concerned after his charges dropped their second game this year, but not overly concerned.

"After we took those two losses I was worried, but the girls have worked hard and rebounded well. We've been playing with more intensity on defense and also shooting the ball better," said Garver.

The women face their first action in tournament action tomorrow in Pasco, Washington, with a 4 p.m. match up with Green River.

Cougars set to battle Centralia in NWAACC tourney

Umpqua Community College knocked off the Clackamas men's basketball team 67-54 to claim the league's number one berth in the NWAACC tournament, which starts tomorrow in Walla Walla, Washington.

Despite the Cougars' loss, they still earned a position in the tournament as the league's number two team by virtue of their first-place league finish.

"We didn't shoot the ball very well at all," said Coach Royce Kiser. "Umpqua cannot beat us playing shots to force them to stay in the zone. We just couldn't hit our shots," observed Kiser.

Todd Spencer lead all Cougars in scoring with 15 points. David Daniels scored 13, and Brett Neslund chipped in eight. Erin Cowan, from Umpqua, lead all scorers with a game-high 28 points.

Despite the 13 point difference at the end, Kiser contested that the game was a continual battle for first place.

"The game was close throughout; it was closer than the final score might indicate. We just couldn't hit our shots, but our us in the game," said Kiser.

The Cougars got to the final game against Umpqua after dumping Lane 63-60. Clackamas trailed 27-25 at the half, but came out in the second half playing inspired defense. Kiser was pleased with his team's performance.

"I feel like we played okay," said Kiser. "Both teams played good solid defense--no one could really score."

Tim Osburn didn't have a problem scoring, as he connected for a game-high 24 points. Spencer and Neslund chipped in 13 apiece. David Meyer led Lane with 13

A key problem that the Cougars faced in this game was their inability to make free throws. Clackamas connected on only 3-10 (30%).

The Cougars, 25-6 and 13-1 in league, will meet Centralia Thursday in their first game at 2 p.m. Kiser is pointing to that game as the key to his team's success in the tournament.

"Our number one goal is to win the first game. Right now we are primed only for the first game. The first game is always a key game in a tournament," said Kiser. Centralia is, according to Kiser, a team that is very similar to the Cougars.

"They're a really tough team. We need to stop their guards. They are really quick; we need to stop their fast break. They are very similar to us," said Kiser.

Despite what happens in the tournament, Kiser is pleased with the season, and the way his team has played.

"This has been a really successful season; our players really worked hard. They're a bunch of really good guys, and they play to win," said Kiser.
