

February weather has been very, very unpredictable

The month started off sunny with the hopes that spring would soon be here.

✓ Portland sees its worst snow storm in 25 years and Clackamas students and staff are given two days to defrost before beginning Winter term's final sweat

More sun...

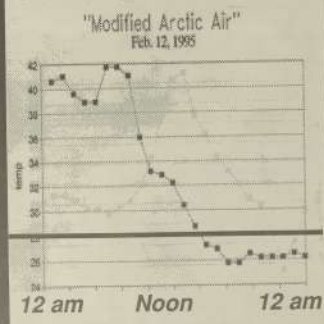

Then came the snow...

and we wondered if it would ever end.

Then the inevitable...rain, rain and more rain.

The Big Chill: 42° to 26° in six hours.

Photos by Chad Patteson & Lora Wahrgren