Racquetball exchange

Clackamas is hosting this term's racquetball tournament at the Eastside Athletic Club (off McLoughlin Boulevard in Milwaukie).

All Clackamas students, faculty and staff are welcome. Chemeketa and Mt. Hood will also participate in the tournament.

There is a cost for entering.

"People should participate if they want to have fun and meet new friends," said Racquetball Coach Kathie Woods.

For more information contact Woods at ext. 2418. Coordinators need to be contacted today.

Exploring Oregon Rivers

"Floating down Oregon's Rivers is a great way to experience Oregon's natural and scenic beauty," reads the Environmental Learning Center's Reflections newsletter.

The ELC offers rafting trips each spring. The three remaining trips cost $65 and are down the Deschutes River.

Each trip includes a lecture on white water safety, rafting equipment, and local plants, birds and geology.

Equipment is provided, but wetsuits are recommended. Map and location information will be provided during registration.

To register for the Deschutes River trips listed below contact the Clackamas Registrar's office at 656-6626.

Travis Armstrong defended his 1996 NWAACC title in the 1500-meter run with a time of 3:59.06. He held the best time in the event for the season.

In the 5000-meter run, Armstrong placed third with a time of 15:34.87.

Danté Betha placed first in the 200-meter dash with a time of 22.17.

Heath Fisher placed second in the javelin with a distance of 198'03", a personal record. Fisher competed with a sore elbow.

Scott Hein placed fourth in the javelin with a distance of 185'11".

In the 3000-meter steeplechase, Jeromy Benson placed third with a time of 9:35.47, a personal record by 13 seconds. Jay Hawkey placed tenth at 10:31.62 and Goin placed eleventh with a time of 10:49.31.

In the shot put Shawn Davis placed sixth with a distance of 43'10". Aaron Stacey placed seventh with a distance of 43'02.25".

In the 400-meter relay the Clackamas team -- Eli Townsend, Mark Gibson, Chad McIntyre and Betha -- placed fifth with a time of 42.97.

Jaimee Brown helps lead the women's 400-meter relay team to fourth place with an overall time of 49.82 seconds. Brown also placed second in the high jump with a height of 5 feet.

Mishe Simantel, Jennifer Rea and Rebecca Graham combined for 44 of the 80 total women's points.

In the 10,000-meter run Simantel placed first with 39:17.32. Before Thursday Simantel's best time was 41:05. Her new time put her fifth on Clackamas' all time list. Just behind her was Rea with a time of 39:37.97.

"That was certainly one of the events that was very special," added Hodges.

Jaimee Brown placed second in the high jump with a height of 5'. Brown held the best qualifying distance going into the meet.

In the javelin, Tristan Sharp placed first with a distance of 139'10", a season's best. She was NWAACC leader in the javelin coming into the meet.

In the shot put, Kristi Chamberlen placed third with a distance of 40'11.5".

And Graham placed third in the 3000-meter run with a time of 10:35.

First place finishes

- Shawn Davis -- hammer -- 187'
- Bill Jones -- pole vault -- 17'.25
- Travis Armstrong -- 1500 meter run -- 3:59.06

In the 400-meter intermediate hurdles, Drew Evansen placed sixth with a time of 56.33, a personal record. Gibson placed eighth with a time of 57.93. Goin placed 17th with a time of 16:56.75.

“They were truly warriors and I'm proud of them.”

Mike Hodges
Track Coach

Women's results for Thursday

The Clackamas women's track team finished the meet in fourth place with 80 points. Lane Community College placed first with 164 points.

Women's results for Friday

In the 1500-meter run Kendal White was carried off the track with cramps in her hamstring.

White came back and placed second in the 800-meter run with a time of 2:20.42.

"It showed a lot of courage to do so well in the 800," said Hodges.

Lareina Cota placed third in the 100-meter dash with a time of 12.94. In the preliminaries, Cota tied for number eight on the Clackamas all-time list with a time of 12.79.

Jennifer Rea placed third in the 5000-meter run with a time of 18:28.17. Just behind her was Rebecca Graham with 18:30.84. In fifth place was Simantel with a time of 19:32.36. All three times were personal records for the women.

The women's 400-meter relay team -- Michelle Wimberley, Amanda Bradley, Cota and Brown -- finished fourth with a time of 49.82. Their time moved them up to number five on the all-time list at Clackamas.

Clackamas' 1600-meter relay team -- Wimberley, Cota, Brown and White -- placed fifth with a time of 4:10.95.

In the 1500-meter run, Jenny Newell placed ninth with a time of 5:24.3.

"They [both teams] really competed. They were truly warriors, and I'm proud of them," concluded Hodges.
