ASG Sponsored BBQ

On Wednesday and Thursday, Jan 20-21, the Associated Student Government will be holding an outdoor BBQ from 11:30-1:30 p.m.. All proceeds will benefit the ASG and provide funds for a trip to Washington D.C. Come eat lunch and help school representatives meet their goal!

Candy Fundraiser

Members of the ASG are selling a variety of candy for one dollar apiece in order to benefit their trip to Washington D.C. Items are being sold around campus, and are available in the ASG office located in the Community Center. This will occur throughout the term.

An Evening with the Stars

Classes to acquaint students with the stars and planets are being held in the Lakeside Educational Hall in Lake Oswego beginning Jan. 23 thru Feb. 20. Classes are offered one night only under specific topics. The Jan. 23 class is titled "An Interview with the God of War: A Close Look at the planet Mars" and runs from 7 to 8 p.m. Two more classes are Feb. 6 and Feb. 20, titled "Dust Among the Stars: Comets, Meteors, and Craters," and "Beyond your Eyes: Binoculars and Telescopes for Viewing the Sky." Contact the ELC at ext. 2351 for more information.

Transfer Day 1999

From 10 a.m. to 1p.m. on Monday, Jan. 25, a forum will be held at the Gregory Forum to help students in transferring to other colleges and universities across Oregon. Twenty-four colleges will be participating in the event, including Oregon State University, Portland State University, Reed College, and University of Oregon. For more information, contact the Clackamas counseling department at ext. 2556, 2599, or 2516.

Poetry Reading

Poet Billy Collins will be reading his work at Portland State University on Thursday, Jan. 21 at 8 p.m. in the Smith Memorial Center, Browsing Lounge, room 238. Presented by the PSU Literary Arts Council, the event's admission is free. Call PSU's Literary Arts Council at 725-5666 for more information.

Writers' Club Contest

The literary magazine Synesthesia will be accepting submissions from Clackamas students until Wednesday, Feb 17. Students may submit up to three poems, one essay, and one piece of fiction. Four copies need to be submitted of each entry, and each entry must include the title and the student's social security number. An IBM-compatible 3.5" disk with the work on it should also be included and turned in to Allen Widerburg. For more information, contact Allen Widerburg at ext. 2359.

Women Writers Group

Now through March 10, a women's writers' interest group Chrysalis will meet from noon to 1 p.m. on Wednesdays in Barlow 114. Diane Averill, a poet and Clackamas English instructor, will lead women writers through discussions of their work. It is a free class, and can be registered as WKS 1-01. Contact Diane Averill at ext. 2370 for more information.

Fun Run

On Sunday, Jan. 24 at 1 p.m., a Polar Bear 5K and Two Mile Fun Run will be held at Clackamas. Complete course directions will be available during the check-in outside the health, PE and Community Recreation Office in Randall Hall. Participants must be checked in by 12:45 p.m. Mail-in entries prior to Thursday, Jan 21 are encouraged. The entry fee is $7 or $15 with a commemorative t-shirt. Checks can be made payable to Clackamas Community College. For more information and registration forms, contact the community recreation office at ext. 2211.

Girls' Softball Clinic

On Saturday, Jan. 30 and Sunday, Jan 31, the seventh annual softball hitting clinic will be held for girls ages 13-18. There is a cost of $25, and the clinic runs in three hour blocks. Individual instruction will be offered in the fundamentals of bunting, slapping, and hitting. Each participant will be videotaped with a coach or player. Contact the Community Recreation Office at ext. 2211 for more details.
