

All the world's a stage

Clackamas' Theatre Department takes on Shakespeare's As You Like It

"Can I even tell you how much fun it is to be hideously ugly, shunning a wonderful suitor, and lusting after a woman that I believe is a man--you can only get that kind of glee from something for which Shakespeare built the framework and you get to make your very own." Kristina L. Coco, Phebe in As You Like It [top, third from right].

[left] Jim Sodini as Oliver and Life Science Instructor Bob Misley as Charles the Wrestler. "I represent the latest in the nature/nurture controversy--if selected for, I plan on running for public office, if against?" Bob Misley

As You Like It runs May 18-20 and June 1-3 at 8 p.m. and May 21 & June 4 at 2:30 p.m. in McLoughlin Hall Theatre. Call ext. 2356 for more information.
