Aries (Mar 21-Apr 19)
Simplicity is bliss. This week complication will only lead you in circles. Save your shoes a little tread and take the simple route this week.

Taurus (Apr 20-May 20)
Take time to look at a situation through a new window. If you are willing to put things in a different perspective, you may finally understand what everyone has been trying to tell you. An open mind is the key.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)
Asking for help is not a crime. Despite what you have been told, you will not have to worry about prison time if you admit that you can't do everything by yourself. Now that you know, lighten your load.

Cancer (June 21-July 22)
Remember the way things used to be. Take a look back at the past and evaluate choices. You will have a similar occurrence this week. It is not deja-vu; it is happening again. This time you will know a productive solution.

Leo (July 23-Aug 22)
Kill two birds with one stone. Don't worry, it's not that you are being lazy, it's just that you know how to manage your time. With more time on your side, take time out for fun.

Virgo (Aug 23-Sept 22)
It just isn't that bad. Sometimes you set yourself up for the worst and you realize that you spent way too much money on all that safety equipment. This time you won't even scrape your knee. Being cautious is okay, but don't overdo it this week.

Libra (Sept 23-Oct 22)
You thought that Jerry Springer was only a TV show. When Jerry becomes a reality, you know life is more than a bad daytime drama. Time to re-evaluate. This week ditch the drama queen crown.

Scorpio (Oct 23-Nov 21)
You are back in the game, the bleachers were okay but you like to play. Sitting on the side has never been your thing. Don't use up all your energy right away; remember you might be a little out of shape.

Sagittarius (Nov 22-Dec 21)
You are getting a little too comfortable. There is nothing wrong with being yourself, but remember to leave a little to the imagination. Sometimes when you are comfortable you reveal too much.

Capricorn (Dec 22-Jan 19)
Less is more—who ever came up with that crazy idea? Really, more is more, and this week you are the person to prove it. It's not always healthy to take on too much responsibility but sometimes it builds character; this is one of those times.

Aquarius (Jan 20-Feb 18)
Did someone forget to inform me that the clock has turned back a few decades? Or are you just going through a phase? A lot has changed over the years; maybe you should take a look at the way you are treating people. You know they are your equals.

Pisces (Feb 19-Mar 20)
Keep only what you need. You have been hesitating, but if you are not using it then it is just taking up space. It is sweet that you have a sentimental attachment, but honestly you know it has to go. This week, liquidation is the answer.
