DO YOU FEEL SAFE ON CAMPUS?

We need your help to find a solution!

Do your classes last until dark?
Do you feel you need to park in a lighted area?
What is there about campus that makes you feel unsafe?
What do you want to see done about it?

Announcements

Fill a Stocking, Fill a Heart Campaign. Clackamas Community College staff and students again have the opportunity to join other community groups in supporting "Fill a Stocking, Fill a Heart," from Nov. 3 through Dec. 14. This is a wonderful holiday community service project that benefits many in need in Clackamas County. Empty Christmas stockings are distributed to community groups whose members will fill them with small gifts. Last year more than 1500 stocking were filled and distributed to agencies such as the Annie Ross House, Clackamas Women's Shelter, Healthy Start, Parrot Creek Family Services, homes for senior citizens, and others. This year the goal is to fill 2000 in 2000. You can pick up a stocking from Emily Orlando in S131 or Dian Connett B213 beginning Nov. 3. Please return by Dec. 14. For more information call Becky at 503-657-6958 ext. 2205.
