Oregon Writer

Andres Berger-Kiss will read from his writings today at 11 a.m. in the Gregory Forum. He is known for both his prose and poetry, which he writes in English and Spanish. Bob Koretsky, a lecturer at University of Portland, describes Berger-Kiss' work as "masterly and elegant prose."

On any summer's day
When lilacs bloom
Unbeknownst to you
I watch by the garden's
Edge
While you spray
Water with a hose
Forming clouds of mist
Around our heads
Barefoot in coveralls
A lily song flowering on your lips
