Birds of Prey
Follow the life of birds of prey in this class for adults at the John Inskip Environmental Learning Center at CCC. Participants will explore the diet, hunting styles, special adaptations, and migration routes of these birds of prey. Nancy Wallwork teaches the class, which takes place Oct. 15 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. There is an $11 fee.

ELC Seedlings: Animal Tails
These programs are for 3 to 5 year olds accompanied by an adult. At each meeting there will be fascinating facts, a craft, special snack, tunes, tales, and other surprises revolving around a different nature topic. Animal Tails will take place from 10 to 11:30 a.m. on Oct. 17. The instructor is Savina Darzes, and there is an $11 fee.

Costume Sale begins at 9 a.m. and continues until 5 p.m., Friday, Oct. 18, in the McLoughlin Hall Theatre. Items will run from $1 to $5, and during the last two hours of the sale, it's possible to fill a grocery bag for $1. For information call ext. 2356.

The second annual Night Skies-Night Eyes takes place from 4 to 10 p.m. Sat. Oct. 19, at the John Inskip Environmental Learning Center, Clackamas Community College.

Activities for kids and families include live birds of prey programs from Hawk Haven, Bats of the Northwest, views from the telescope in the Haggart Observatory and night walks along Newell Creek. The suggested donation of $5 per family benefits the ELC and the observatory.

The annual Harvest Run at Clackamas Community College will take place at noon on Sunday, Oct. 27. The event features an 8K run around the college's scenic campus and a 2-mile fun run.

Pre-race sign-in takes place from 10:30 to 11:45 a.m. The entry fee is $15, which includes a custom-designed long-sleeve T-shirt. Call 503-657-6958, ext. 2298 to register before Oct. 20.
