

★ THE CLACKAMAS PRINT ★

Wednesday, January 22, 2003 • Volume 36 • Issue 5 • Clackamas Community College • Oregon City, OR <http://depts.clackamas.cc.or.us/print>

CORY PRICE Clackamas Print

Above: Over 20,000 Portland residents joined national efforts to march for peace on Saturday. Portland's rally was held downtown. The peaceful protest was amongst the largest in the country. Right: A single protestor finds a solitary place to make his statement.

WAR & PEACE

Marchers say no to war

Cory Price
Staff Writer

ing messages including "keep Enron out of Oregon" and quotes from Ben Franklin stating, "There never was a good war nor a bad peace." Amongst the crowd stood a
 The rally consumed four blocks as the guest speakers said their piece, and the march stretched over ten blocks. Amazingly, with all these different cultural groups no

1 - 4 Week Work Program

Rapidly expanding 53-year-old company has openings in customer sales / service. Opportunity to continue part-time in the spring or secure summer position. Naturally some conditions apply.

~Business is good, we need help and we're willing to pay for it~

$12.15 base-appt.

- * No experience necessary * College credit poss.
- * Fun work environment * No door to door
- * Part-time and Full-time * No telemarketing
- * Flexible hours * Great for resume'

Interviewing now for positions starting after finals

Vancouver (360) 573-1868	Fed. Way/Kent (253) 852-0621	Bellevue (425) 883-3189
East Portland (503) 771-9931	Seattle (206) 362-1751	Kitsap (360) 692-7584
W. PtInld/Beaverton (503) 892-5737	Everett (425) 438-8878	Olympia (360) 236-0944
Bellingham (360) 756-1911	Tacoma (253) 983-0170	Eugene (541) 683-7786

www.workforstudents.com