

Former student Daniels leaves friends, family behind after fatal car accident

Joyel Ruth Daniels, a former Clackamas student died Saturday, Jan. 25, 2003, due to injuries sustained in a car accident. Funeral services were held Saturday, Feb. 1 at the Mulino Community Baptist Church.

Daniels, 27, was born Nov. 17, 1975 in Seoul, South Korea. At eight months old she was adopted through the Holt Adoption Agency in Eugene. She has lived in the Canby-Beavercreek area since she was a young child.

Daniels graduated from the New Covenant Christian School in Oregon City. She began her college education as a music student at Clackamas in 1993 and graduated in 1996. She was an accomplished pianist and Lonnie Cline's accompanist for his Chamber and Clackamas Chorale.

In 1999 she earned a Bachelor of Arts in music theory and composition, a Bachelor of Arts in music ministry, and a Bachelor of Science in business and music from Warner Pacific College.

Daniels was very active in the 4-H program at the county and state level. She earned master showman awards as an intermediate and senior at the Clackamas County Fair. She was known for her spirit of competition and sportsmanship.

Her passion was her music and her faith. She worked at Music Man Studios in Wilsonville for nine years, and was a member of the Mulino Community Baptist Church.

Daniels met her husband Robert Oun at a bible study group in 1995, and they were married Sept 17, 1999.

Survivors include her husband, parents Kermit and Carol, and sister Kailyn Mae of Beavercreek, brother Steven Jim of Milwaukie, grandmother Myrtle Daniels of Canby, three nieces and one great-niece.

The family suggests that memorials be made to the music department at Warner Pacific College in Southeast Portland.

*This will be the moment
That I will cherish for all time.
And I will remember your face;
An eternity from now until Heaven's gate.*

*I will always see you in this place.
I will always see you here.
Time was stolen from us;
You'll be in my heart.
When I see you again;
You'll be in my heart until then.
We will miss your smile.
We will miss your warmth.
We will miss your touch.
But most of all;
We will miss you.*
