

★ THE CLACKAMAS PRINT ★

Wednesday, March 5, 2003 • Issue 11 • Volume 36 • Clackamas Community College • Oregon City, OR <http://www2.clackamas.edu/theprint>

upcoming EVENTS

News
Budget cuts affect administrative positions.
Page 2

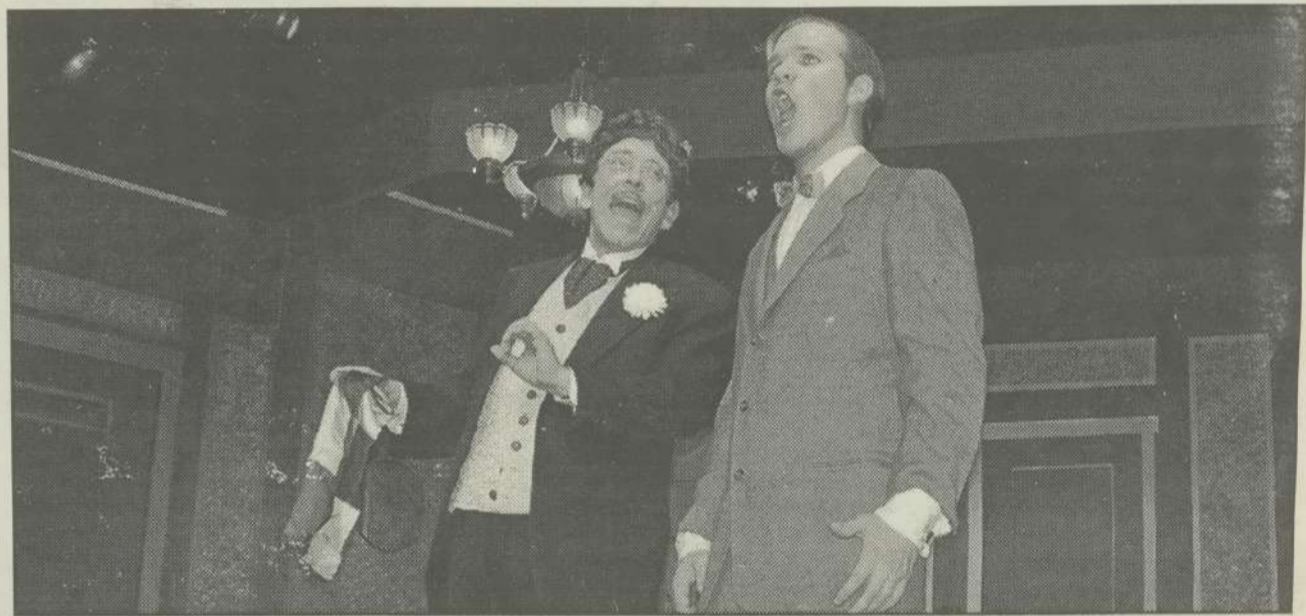

Feature
Skeletal cat remains found in Molalla home.
Page 4

Sports
Baseball begins with one win, one loss.
Page 7

LEND ME A TENOR

The two stars of 'Lend Me a Tenor' Tito Morelli (Jeff Miller) and Max (Matt Morrison) sing a duet together. Miller has a Masters in Theater Arts. Morrison stepped into the lead role three weeks into rehearsals.

photos by LUKE MAHAN Clackamas Print

Maria Morelli (Dawnie Drebin) invades Max's comfort zone.

Saunders (Tom Cavanaugh) glares impatiently at Julia (Daphne Starling) as she bursts in uninvited, seeking an introduction to the famous opera singer.

Read the review
on page 5

March 6:
• Social Sciences Colloquium: "Our Violent World." Guest speaker Rhonda E. Reese. M206 at noon.

March 7-10:
• NWAACC men's and women's post-season basketball championships in Pasco, Wash.

March 8:
• Unistus Chamber Choir Benefit Concert in memory of Joyel Daniels at Barclay Community Center, 817 12th St, Oregon City. 3 p.m. Admission is a donation for Joyel's family.

March 8:
• Damon Coates Fundraiser. Two-mile walk at the college starts at 11 a.m. Registration at 8:30 a.m. Registration/donation is $35. For more information, call the Clackamas County Sheriff's Office at (503) 655-8403 or e-mail walkforcoates@aol.com.

March 11-13:
• One-act comedies by David Ives, directed by students. McLoughlin Hall Theatre at noon, plus a 7 p.m. showing on March 13. Free admission, plus comedy improv by "Full of Bologna."

March 14 & 15:
• 32nd Annual Instrumental Jazz Festival. Randall Hall Gym at 7:30 p.m. Admission is $5.

Famous trumpeters come to CCC

Pete Ford
News Editor

The CCC Concert Band, directed by Dave Mills, will host and perform tonight at Clackamas' Winter Band Concert.

The show starts at 7:30 p.m. in the Gregory Forum where the band will be playing a number of rehearsed pieces. In addition to Concert Band performances, Clackamas is proud to welcome three of the top West Coast Trumpeters to tonight's show.

The first trumpeter, Rich Cooper, has played with a number of Big Bands and top artists. Cooper played lead trumpet with the Buddy Rich Big Band and also in Woodie Herman's Big Band. He also spent a number of years in Las Vegas performing shows as a back-up trumpeter for such entertainers as Frank Sinatra, Wayne Newton and Tony Bennett. He even toured with the late "King of Rock and Roll," Elvis Presley. Cooper teaches lessons with "practical and usable knowledge," by appointment, according to his informational handout.

Mark Gaulke, a University of Portland graduate, has been a first call lead trumpet player on high demand in the Portland Metro area. He's worked many shows and has backed numerous nationally known acts that come to Portland, including the Broadway hit Chicago. He has worked locally with Norman Loden's concert series and also played in the Woodie Hite Big Band.

The third featured trumpeter for the show tonight is Dick Titterington. Titterington is new to the area. He has spent many years on the road performing for Broadway shows such as Titanic, Chicago, West Side Story, and even spent a six-year run on the national tour of the hit musical "Cats."

"He is really an excellent trumpeter," said Director Dave Mills.

Titterington also has a full length album currently in stores titled "Amber Eyes" which was released in 1997 and has "garnered favorable reviews," according to Jazz Times magazine.

The cost for the evening is $5. The show is tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the Gregory Forum.