

IRAQ

ONE YEAR LATER: Reality of the war in Iraq

- U.S. troops in Iraq: 135,000
- Wounded G.I.s: 3,466
- Number of U.S. soldiers killed: 682
- Number of Iraqi soldiers killed: 11,000
- Number of Iraqi civilians killed in war: 715
- IEDs Found: 0
- Number of Iraqi "playing cards" captured and/or killed: 42
- Bombs dropped: 40,000
- Money spent: $131,000,000,000.00

PHOTO COURTESY OF WWW.CNN.COM

Map of important military movements and key battles in "Operation Iraqi Freedom."

PHOTO COURTESY OF WWW.IMMIGRANTSFORMERICA.COM

A statue of former president of Iraq, Saddam Hussein is toppled in Baghdad, symbolizing the defeat of the dictator and his regime.

PHOTO COURTESY OF WWW.GANNETONLINE.COM

Spc. Joseph Hudson, left to right, and Spc. Patrick Miller carried an American flag and waved from a hatch of the C-17 Globemaster III as they returned to Biggs Army Airfield in El Paso, Texas, April 19.

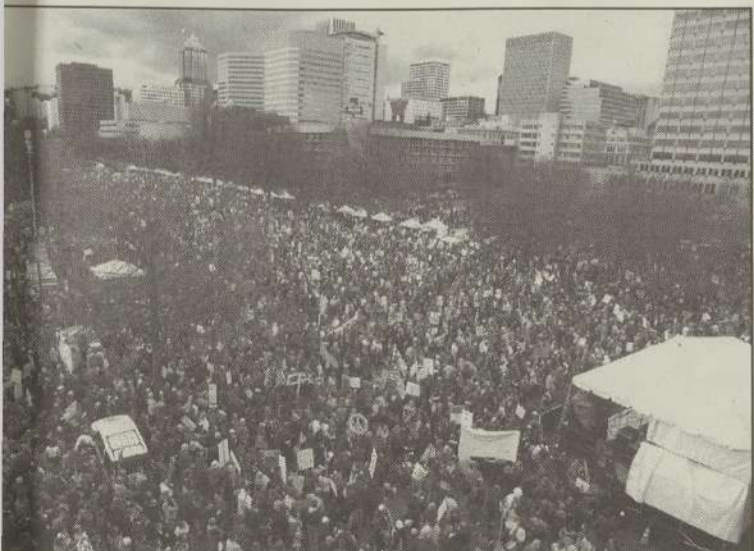

PHOTO COURTESY OF PORTLAND.INDYMEDIA.ORG

March 15, 2003. Thousands of citizens gather at Waterfront Park in Portland, Oregon to prepare for a march to protest the upcoming invasion of Iraq. Some held signs and banners while others chanted slogans such as "1, 2, 3, 4, we don't want your oil war."

PHOTO COURTESY OF WWW.THENAUSEA.COM

Burnt body of American mercenary is strung up by a frenzied Iraqi mob on a bridge in Falluja, Iraq. (see editors note on page 4).

