The Clackamas volleyball team finished a busy stand winning four games in eight days. Last Wednesday, Oct. 13, the Cougars defeated the Mt. Hood CC Saints 25-30, 30-26, 30-24, 30-26. Cougar statistical leaders were: Brianna McLeod with 17 kills and 22 digs, Crystal Jeffries with 13 kills and one ace serve, Karrin Orr with 12 kills and 23 digs and four ace serves, Samantha Hennessy with eight kills and Lindsey Girod-Burgess with 37 digs. The Cougars are now No. 1 in the NWAACC Southern Region with a league record of 7-1, putting the volleyballers two full games ahead of rivals Mt. Hood CC and Chemeketa CC who are tied for second with a league record of 5-3. Tonight, the Cougars will be at home against Linn-Benton CC with game time slated for 7 p.m. in the Randall gym. (LEFT) Jeffries (11) and Kristen Diehl (3) move in for the block. (TOP RIGHT) Diehl (3) lays down the serve. (RIGHT MIDDLE) McLeod (6) hollers at her teammates during a break in play.
