

Lindsey Boeck swings the ball Hill (3) during a 36 win over South Oregon CC. Hill has seven points, seven assists, four rebounds currently in the Region statistics categories: she is averaging 18.1 points per game, 6.9 rebounds, 3.8 assists, 1.1 blocks. She has added six points, steals and two assists. Now 3-0 in league play and 15-3 overall, the Cougars will attack tonight against Portland CC at 7 p.m. in the Randall Center as they look to move one step closer towards the NWAACC Championship. They are currently ranked No. 4 in the

Jeff Sorenson

The ballers are in the building

Clackamas routs Southwestern Oregon CC and Mt. Hood

N.P. Delzell
The Clackamas Print

With seven straight wins the Cougar Lady Basketballs don't look to renege on last year's NWAACC Championship. In only their third league game this season, the Lady Cougars dismantled Mt. Hood CC last Wednesday 82-23. L'Trece Prewitt led the way with 15 points and seven steals. LaToya Hill, who is averaging 18.1 points per game in league play, flowed her way to 12 points; she also snatched eight steals. The Lady Cougars also took out Southwestern CC on Jan. 8 68-36. In their league opener on Jan. 5, the Cougars proved that they are the queens of the NWAACC south as they defeated Chemeketa (CHCC) CC 69-68 in front of the home crowd. Last season, CCC battled and conquered CHCC for the NWAACC championship, giving them their first title. In the NWAACC championship rematch, Hill led the way with an awe-inspiring 23 points, seven assists, and five steals. Vanessa Schmitz's double double of 11 points and 14 rebounds proved to be too much Cougar for the Storm to handle. The Cougars were also victorious in the Chemeketa Holiday tournament on Nov. 28; they were able to oust Wenatchee Valley CC in the Championship game 62-57. Rochelle Reeves was the leading scorer for the Cougars with 18 points. Hill was her usual self scoring 16 and pulling down 9 rebounds. Schmitz added 12 points and was able to dominate the key with 12 rebounds. Earlier in the season the Cougars beat Willamette JV, placed third in the Greys Harbor tournament, lost to Centralia, beat Blue Mt. twice, and placed second in the CCC Thanksgiving Invitational losing to Umpqua CC in the tournament final. Clackamas is now 3-0 in league play and 15-3 overall the Cougars are now ranked No. 4 in the NWAACC

Coaches' Poll by Umpqua, and W...
EDITOR'S NOTE
Please attend the basketball game against Portland at 7 p.m. in the Randall Center. The Lady Cougars are poised and ready for the latter half of the season and look to win the NWAACC title. There are more home games on the schedule; check the department for Holla' at your boy!!!

The Clackamas Print wants to hear from you. Listen up everyone in the Clackamas sports world, we want your letters. Did we muck up? Do our opinions suck? Would you like something printed in our paper? Well... holla' at Nic Delzell, your sometimes friendly neighborhood Clackamas sports editor.

Send all entries to: sportsed@clackamas.edu or drop off a digital copy at RR135.

Please limit submissions to 250 words. The Clackamas Print reserves the right to edit submissions for grammar, content and clarity.

INDULGENCE HAS ARRIVED

Cold Stone Creamery® offers the best in smooth and creamy ice cream, made fresh daily in every store. You can choose your favorite mix-ins, including fresh baked brownies, fruits, pie fillings, candies, cookies and nuts. Your ice cream Creation™ is mixed on a cold granite stone, then served in a fresh-baked waffle cone or bowl.

Don't forget to try our delicious signature cakes too! One bite, and you'll realize that our signature ice cream cakes are a medley of the richest, most sensual flavors ever to pass your lips. Our premium ice cream is always smooth and creamy, the cake is moist and delectable, and the toppings, like our fabulous fudge ganache, are practically sinful.

Names and images portrayed are trademarks of Cold Stone Creamery Inc. ©2004 Cold Stone Creamery Inc.

$1.00
a serving

COLD STONE CREAMERY

19711 Highway 101
Oregon
P (503) 516-1111
F (503) 516-1111

1/10th mile south of school in Trails End (near Haggan)

Limit one per customer per visit. Not valid with other offers. No cash value. No redemption. Subject to change without notice. ©2004 Cold Stone Creamery Inc. Names and images portrayed are trademarks of Cold Stone Creamery Inc. English 2/04