

Grabill speaks at Wordstock 2006

Portland's annual celebration of the written word was held last weekend at the Portland Convention Center. Workshops, readings and author appearances drew hundreds of attendees from the Portland area and beyond.

Left: Local poet Verlana Orr and Clackamas English Instructor James Grabill discuss their craft with a fan after reading some of their work in the Mountain Writer's Poetry Stage.

Below: Northwest sci-fi and fantasy author Ursula K. LeGuin signs a fan's book after her reading and question and answer session Sunday.

Bottom: Giant books greet bookworms outside the main event hall.
