

College provides slick apparel

Emily Walters

Arts & Culture Editor

Need a sharp outfit for an important job interview?

Look no further than the college for a professional wardrobe.

The Clothes Closet is a place on campus, run by the Associated Student Government (ASG), which has free clothing available for anyone.

The Workforce Development Center proposed the idea of having a place at the college where those looking for work could find practical clothing.

According to ASG Community Service Senator Kalynn Stearens, who runs the Clothes Closet, it opened two years ago.

Where does the clothing come from?

It is "provided by the students and staff," Stearens said.

The ASG office, located in the Community Center, alongside the cafeteria, accepts all donations.

But be warned – the Clothes Closet is not a dump for all unwanted clothes. Student Government will not be happy if all the discards of the entire student body find their way into the ASG office.

"We provide just professional clothing and coats," said Stearens.

In other words, bring in suits and jackets that are in good condition. For this reason, the Clothes Closet's motto is "Dress for Success."

ASG also greatly appreciates it when donators bring in clean apparel, rather than items covered in cat hair or grime.

For those who wish to acquire smart attire from the Clothes Closet, the process is easy.

Simply stop by CC146, right off the Fireside Lounge, anytime from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Mondays and Wednesdays, or 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Embarrassed about being seen looking through free apparel?

Have no fear.

ASG decided that it was best to leave the Clothes Closet unattended, in order to minimize students' mortification.

If students are nervous about even being seen going into the room ... becoming a master of camouflage or honing ninja skills may be the only ways to get around that one.

Want to know more?

Contact ASG at ext. 2245,

Kalynn Stearens at ext. 5376, or stop by the ASG office (CC152) for further information.

Elizabeth Hitz Clackamas Print
ASG Community Service Senator Kalynn Stearens smiles as she looks through the racks in the Clothes Closet, which she runs. All clothing is free.

Events

OPEN: The Faculty Exhibition is open in the Alexander Gallery, inside the Niemeyer Center, until Nov. 2. The exhibition features 11 members of the faculty, all from the Art Department.

10/25: A workshop meets from noon to 1 p.m., taught by Bill Briare on a book by Neil Howe and William Strauss, titled Millenials Go To College. The workshop will run every other week at the same time in McLoughlin Hall, room 256. Call ext. 2333 for more information.

10/29: Free Jazz Jams in room N119 in the Niemeyer Center from 7 to 10 p.m. every Monday. For more information, contact the Music Department at ext. 2434.

10/31: There will be a Blood Drive in the Gregory Forum from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. One donation may save three lives. Sign up at the ASG office, room CC152, or call ext. 2245.

MT. HOOD MEADOWS SKI RESORT

2007/08 SEASON PASSES

EX3 = $300 (AGE 15 - 22) UNLIMITED SEASON PASS

$300 each when purchased on-line together by November 4.

www.SKIHOOD.com

Coming This Week To Theaters...

10/26 – Dan in Real Life, rated PG-13, starring Steve Carell, Juliette Binoche and Dane Cook.

10/26 – Saw IV, rated R, starring Tobin Bell, Costas Mandylor and Scott Patterson.

10/26 – The Comebacks, rated PG-13, starring David Koechner, Carl Weathers and Matthew Lawrence.

