

... Costumes tell a story"

-Mason Cooley

The Witch

Looking to double, trouble and toil your fun this Halloween with a splash of sexy spice? Buying a simple dress and a shimmer cape at Oregon City Goodwill will cost you less than $20!

Remember to buy a silky wig to top of the image, or just scalp your best friend for thrifty savings!

Two-Face

What is more hip and easy than Batman's fun filled, schizophrenic, law-abiding enemy, Harvey Dent? Run down to the Oregon City Goodwill and grab a graduation robe for only $4.99 and the handsome devil's façade for a mere $1.99.

Two-Face is also reversible to become the bell ringer, Quasimodo, from Notre Dame.

Ninja

For only $7 at the Oregon City Goodwill, you could always grab the unoriginal sub-zero ninja knock-off. Pretend to jump from building to building with your "inner ninja strength" while in reality you will just be walking on the street like everyone else.

Spray paint the silver to yellow to become Scorpion. Really, ninjas never wear flashy things.

