horoscopes for the week

By Swami N. Armstrong

Aries (March 21 – April 19): Your life is a lot like a fresh and hot apple pie left on the windowsill to cool. It is delectable. Unfortunately, the kids next door stole the pie and ate it a few hours ago when you weren't paying attention.

Gemini (May 21 – June 20): No one likes you but me.

Taurus (April 20 – May 20): Signs say your children will be raised by wolves. That's right. You are a wolf in human disguise. You simply forgot that fact.

Cancer (June 21 – July 22): The danger of sharing heroin needles pales in comparison to the dangers you face because of your gambling habits. Be wary of anyone carrying brass knuckles.

Leo (July 23 – August 22): You bear a striking resemblance to Hurricane Katrina. That being said, you should be very careful not to destroy any levees with your hurricane force winds.

Virgo (August 23 – September 22): This week is a good week for someone far luckier than you to get their dream job.

Libra (September 23 – October 22): Uranus's alignment with the Sigma Theta stellar cluster indicates that you will face your archenemy, a Scorpio, in one-on-one mortal combat on a rope bridge over an active volcano; bring scissors.

Scorpio (October 23 – November 21): Avoid rope bridges and active volcanoes. Though they may not necessarily spell out your doom, they are an unnecessary risk.

Sagittarius (November – December 21): The spider went up the water and bit you in the neck.

Capricorn (December – January 19): The full moon will be a chainsaw and a few zombies might also be werewolves in the

Aquarius (January – February 18): Always getting older

Pisces (February 19 – 20): Life is all about the Hoard it. Invest in the Vietnamese
