

Winterhawk fans cheer on the team after a goal during the first period. Nearly 8,000 people were in attendance.

All photos by John William Howard The Clackamas Print

Marcel Noebels, a Winterhawks forward, faces off against Aspen Sterzer and Austin Madaisky of the Kamloops Blazers. The Hawks shut out the Blazers 2-0 in the final game of the series.

Winterhawk goalie Mar Carruth defends the goal post alongside defensive player Derrick Pouliot. The Hawks' defense was crucial to the win over Kamloops.

Next Game:
Wednesday, April 25 at the Rose Garden, 7 p.m.

Portland takes on the Tri-City Americans in game 3 of the Western Conference Championships. Hawks lead the series 2-0.

Hawks send Kamloops Blazers back to Canada, eh? Advance to Western Conference Championships

