

Art Show Turning Heads

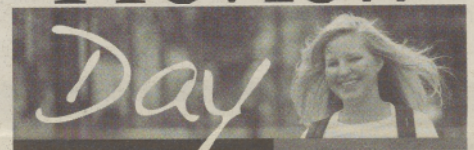

Joshua Dillen The Clackamas Print

Brittany Hamon The Clackamas Print

The Homespun art exhibit was created by CCC instructor Kate Simmons, left. She is currently teaching Sculpture 292. The beautiful art is displayed in Niemeyer and closes next Monday, Feb. 11. The materials used for Homespun were fiber, metals, wood and ceramics as well as other unusual materials. It took Simmons five years to complete all the pieces of art in her display. She created a few different series of artwork including The Kitchen Sink Series, Upbringing, The Fuck'n Pie Crust, Pull Toys and Animal Heads.
