Professor CLACKAMAS

Dear Professor Clackamas,

What's up with the 'ASG Suggestion Boxes?' I see them everywhere, but does anyone actually use them?

- Sincerely, Will I Get Ebola From That Box?

W ell, Will, since you asked so nicely. I'm relatively sure you won't get Ebola from the ASG Suggestion Boxes. However, as the name suggests, it's made for, well. Suggestions.

And where do these suggestions go? Well, Associated Student Government, clearly.

ASG is run by students, aiming to assist students on campus and create a variety of student activities for people to get involved in.

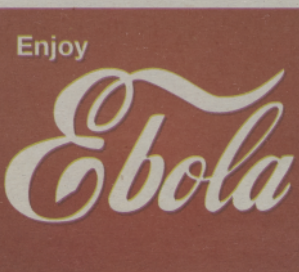

"We check the suggestion boxes one to two times a year," said Candice Stauffer, ASG's multicultural senator. "We never get any suggestions, though."

So there you go, Will.

Ebola? No. A lack of students that care about ASG? Yes.

Sincerely and perpetually irritated,
Professor Clackamas
