Clackamas Couture

Get your style on with this year's fall fashion. Clackamas Community College has many talented students in all areas, including those who are fashion savvy. Stepping outside, it's no longer sun rays and a cool breeze. It's time to switch out your crop tops and tank tops for flannels and beanies. At Clackamas, students can be found wearing ripped jeans, denim jackets, and anything comfy for those early mornings. Trending shoes on campus include Nikes, Adidas and ankle boots. Inspiration is all around; take a step outside the box and reveal your inner fall fashion guru.
