

REALLY?

MELISSA,

I know you are going to hear a lot about the cover. But for those of us with respect for women, and who are having a particularly dark morning, I'm over the top disappointed with the cover. And pissed off.

The last thing we need now is to be degrading women. The cover makes it ok.

Surely this was not your idea? Please tell me this was not your idea.

Whoever it is, should be fired, and needs a CC on this email. I will not stand for this kind of degrading talk. Here. Anywhere. Just because the idiot somehow rigged it, does not mean we will be following suit. The college should have NO place in putting degrading words out into the community. MAKE IT STOP.

I DO hope it was not you...whoever it was owes the CCC Community a big, huge apology.

Love and absolute embarrassment over this country...

"TRUMP GRABS US BY THE PUSSY" REALLY??

You think that is appropriate for the college newspaper? Just because Donald Trump is crude and vulgar does not mean that the rest of us need to lower ourselves to that level.

Letters to the editor

WHAT ON EARTH ...

are you promoting with the student paper? How is that creating a safe environment and teaching tolerance and safety for all? Why on earth would you permit the FRONT PAGE to be about the president elect grabbing pussy??? For all the sensitivity training you put staff through, and I'm sure if you're anything like PCC the students have to go through too, you completely missed the mark by making light of assault. I am so embarrassed to be part of Clackamas County if that is what we are teaching.

CLACKAMAS PRINT,

As a 3rd year student here at CCC I look forward to each publication of the Clackamas Print. Sadly, I was very disappointed with the most recent post-election edition's front page headline.

The mission statement of the Print, found under the masthead on page 2, states: "The Clackamas Print aims to report the news in an honest, unbiased and professional manner. ..." I found the choice of words for the front page headline to be very unprofessional. As members of the Print you have been given the gift and privilege to create a newspaper representative of the college community you serve.

I challenge you to use a multitude of positive, informative words and not sink into the gutter of our English language as you report the news to our community. Please see this as a learning experience and not solely as the mistake of a poor choice of words. Thank you for your consideration in this matter.
