your thirst. Both places tend to have a long line around lunch time so plan accordingly. It's best to get your fix of coffee before you go to class to avoid the big crowds of people around midday. If you're not much of a coffee drinker, Starbucks has many alternatives such as the refreshers. My personal favorite is the mango dragon fruit refreshers. Dutch Bros also has plenty of coffee alternatives like their Rebel drinks which you can get iced or blended. Their smoothies come in plenty of flavors.

Starbucks is located in O.C. Point. Dutch Bros is located at 19131 S Beaver Creek Rd.

If you're looking for some Mexican food, Don Chico's is the place to go. Located just one mile down on Molalla Ave., Don Chico's offers tacos, burritos, quesadillas and much more. They also offer waters like horchata (cinnamon, rice), Jamaica (hibiscus) and tamarindo tamarind.)

Don Chico's is located at 1692 Molalla Ave.

If you're looking into something fast and healthy, Pita Pit offers a lot of good and healthy Mediterranean food like gyros with options for vegetarian and meat eaters. Their menu has a lot of variety making it an ideal place to grab lunch. All of their ingredients are fresh and made to order. It's a good alternative to Subway and well worth it for anyone looking for a quick and healthy lunch break.

If a light snack is all you're looking for, the ASG office offers the cheapest snacks on campus like ramen, popcorn, chips, sodas and candy.

The ASG office is located right next to the Cougar Cafe.

These are just a few spots near campus to help you get started your first few weeks. Oregon City is lucky to have plenty of eateries that cater to everyone's diets. With a little research, you can find your next go-to place.

Happy eating!

A variety of food and drinks are available for purchase in the Cougar Cafe. Some examples are pictured above. A little bacon cheeseburger from Five Guys, below, refers to a cheeseburger with a single patty, whereas the regular cheeseburger has two.
