Jackson County Master Gardener Association and Oregon State University Extension Service

Become an OSU Master Gardener

Learn the latest in gardening and horticultural skills. Be confident in vegetable gardening, landscape situations and environmentally sound gardening practices. No previous horticultural skills are required.

What: OSU Master Gardener training is both lecture and hands on training in basic horticulture skills and practices. The purpose of the training is to equip students in gardening and be able to answer questions from the general public at the OSU Extension office in Josephine County.

When: The training is offered once a year. Classes are every Thursday starting January 15 thru April 2, 2009. All classes start at 9:00 AM and end at 4:00 PM. Bring your lunch.

Where: Classes are held at the OSU Extension Auditorium at 215 Ringuette Street, in Grants Pass.

Cost: The training cost is $100.00 which covers the Gardening Handbook and additional class materials.

Requirements: In exchange for training, participants contribute time as volunteers, working through the OSU Josephine County Extension Service to provide horticulture-related information to their community. Master Gardeners intern for 70 volunteer hours.

Registration: You can register at the OSU Extension Office on Ringuette Street in Grants Pass. An application can be downloaded at: <http://extension.oregonstate.edu/josephine/Horticulture.htm>

Questions: If you have any questions or would like to discuss the program in more detail call 541-476-6613.

Special Classes

Saturday February 7
GRAPE PRUNING
 Chris Hubert, Quail Run Vineyard

The emphasis of this class will be growing grapes in the home garden especially how, when, and where to prune. Participants will also learn terminology that applies to growing grapes, care of grapes, and solutions for common grape problems in the home garden. The class will conclude with outdoor practice in pruning grapes so dress for the weather and bring gloves and clippers. This class counts toward Master Gardener recertification hours.

Saturday February 21
FRUIT TREE PRUNING
 Terry Helfrich, Bear Creek Corp.

The emphasis of this class will be growing fruit trees in the home garden especially how, when, and where to prune. Selection of trees and planting site, tree structure, planting requirements, spacing, tree training, will also be discussed with the goal of producing more fruit. The class will conclude with outdoor practice in pruning fruit trees so dress for the weather and bring gloves and loppers. This class counts toward Master Gardener recertification hours.

The Jackson County Master Gardener Program, a program of Oregon State University Extension, educates local gardeners on the art and science of growing and caring for plants. Trained Master Gardener volunteers extend sustainable gardening information to their communities through educational outreach programs.

There is a fee of $5.00 per class unless indicated otherwise. The classes are held at the OSU Extension Center located at 569 Hanley Road, Central Point, Oregon. 541-776-7371.

Saturday classes 9am-12pm • Weekday classes 7 pm-9 pm
