

TRIBAL PROGRAM NEWS

Mort Packer congratulates Zach Kennedy after a review of the purple belt pre-test.

Axl Goodell and Desiree Rilatos work on their kicking and yelling techniques.

Heather Moore, RaeLoni Belgarde and their classmates (above right) practice their kicks.

SWAT Team Practices at Siletz School

Seventeen children are taking advantage of an after-school karate class that also teaches them about discipline, respect for individuals, and the benefits of healthy living and exercise.

Mort and Carolyn Packer lead the S.W.A.T. - Super Winning Attitude Team - that meets for an hour each Wednesday afternoon. Team members range from age 5 to 13 and are equally divided between boys and girls.

Team members include RaeLoni Belgarde, Dakota Burgins, Chris Crawford, Axl Goodell, Eli Grove, Lindsey Grove, Zach Kennedy, Richard Lafferty, Tawsha McKinney, Heather Moore, Robert Moore, Desiree Rilatos, Cassandra Rilatos, Chelsey Stewart, Joe Warren, Joshua Warren, and Kelsey Warren.

The Packers started this program in the Albuquerque Public Schools in 1992 and began teaching it at Siletz School in May 1998. They are employed at Chinook Winds Casino, where Mort is a Blackjack dealer and Carolyn works in the Winners Circle.

Space is available for additional children to sign up for this tribally sponsored program. Contact any of the following for more information:
