

Shop 'Til You Drop Promotion Continues

Although the initial "Shop 'Til You Drop" promotion, which included discounts to selected stores, ended Dec. 18, it's not too late to enter the drawing for the $10,000 shopping spree at the Factory Stores @ Lincoln City. Entry forms are still available through the Winners Circle for the drawing that takes place on Jan. 30.

"Soul Man" Sam Moore and Little Eva to Perform

Sam Moore, the "Soul Man" and lead singer of Sam & Dave, will perform at Chinook Winds on Jan. 14 and 15.

Grammy-winning Sam Moore first came to prominence as the "Soul Man" - the lead singer of the legendary duo Sam & Dave. Their songs, "Hold On, I'm Comin'," "I Thank You," "When Something Is Wrong With My Baby," "Soul Sister, Brown Sugar," and "Wrap It Up," climbed both the pop and R&B charts internationally.

Sam & Dave served as the inspiration for Dan Akroyd and John Belushi's Saturday Night Live parody, The Blues Brothers, when they covered the duo's 1967 million-selling, Grammy-winning "Soul Man" and exposed a new generation of fans to their music. Although Moore's partner Dave Prater died in an auto accident in 1988, Moore continues to perform their music solo, to the delight of audiences far and wide.

Little Eva, best known for "Locomotion," will open all three shows.

Concert times are 8 p.m. Friday and 7 and 10 p.m. Saturday. Ticket prices range from $15 to $20, depending on seat location.

Take a Wild Ride with Paul Revere and the Raiders

Paul Revere organized the Raiders in 1958. Since then it's been one wild performance after another with 25 consecutive hit singles, eight gold albums, and nearly 50 million records sold. "Louie, Louie," "Ooh Poo Pah Doo," "Just Like Me," "Kicks," "Hungry," "Good Thing," and "Indian Reservation" (which sold nearly 3 million singles, making it the biggest seller for Columbia Records in 10 years) are among their many hits.

In 1965-66, the group was featured on ABC's five-day-a-week network show, "Where the Action Is," produced by Dick Clark. In 1968-69 Paul Revere co-hosted a weekly ABC series called "Happening," which featured the Raiders. They've done numerous TV and radio commercials, been featured on many TV shows, and have performed in North America and Europe.

Paul Revere, the only remaining member of the original group, has been called "Mad Man of Rock 'n' Roll" for good reason. Onstage, Revere carries on with maniacal glee, as if he wants to get in the last laugh before the men in the white coats carry him off. Although the members of the band have changed over time, the onstage excitement has remained supercharged and the quality of music has only improved. It's truly a "blast from the past."

Concert times are 8 p.m. Friday and 7 and 10 p.m. Saturday. Ticket prices range from $10 to $15, depending on seat location.
