18-Year-Olds Eligible to Play Bingo, Pull-Tabs and Poker

Eighteen-, 19-, and 20-year-old customers (and above) can play Bingo, Pull-Tabs and Poker at Chinook Winds Casino because they are class II games.

The only exception is if Keno sells Pull-Tabs at the Keno counter, they cannot buy the Pull-Tabs there because it's a class III area.

New Rock & Rollin' Machines

Chinook Winds just added more variety and excitement to the gaming area with new VLT "Rock & Rollin'" machines. This nine-line video nickel slot gives players the excitement of a pinball game combined with the thrilling wins of a successful slot machine.

When three or four "coin" symbols occur, the win is held and the remaining reels are re-spun three times. If the player achieves five coins, he will find himself right in front of a pinball game. Now the player can control the flippers and win bonus awards while playing pinball. Hit the hot shot and win up to 90,000 credits!

Two Lincoln City Residents Win Casino Drawings

Two local residents were big winners in the End of Summer Spectacular Drawing at Chinook Winds Casino in late August.

Thirty-six finalists were drawn, 12 each on a Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Each contestant won between $100 and $500 in the initial drawing. The 12 who won $500 became eligible for the grand prize drawing.

Mary McReynolds of Aurora, Colo. (shown on the left), received $1,000 in gift certificates from the Factory Stores @ Lincoln City; Tracy Kessler (right) of Lincoln City won a Bose Home Theater System with an estimated value of $3,000; and the grand prize winner was Bruce Anderson, also of Lincoln City, who took home $10,000 in cash.
