Brown-Godfrey Named Employee of the Year

Laurie Brown-Godfrey was named Employee of the Year at the tribe's holiday party/all-staff meeting in December.

Both Bob Jensen and Ticey Casey nominated Laurie. Bob's nomination reads as follows:

"Laurie's positive attitude and her willingness to help her ESP clients is remarkable. The few short months I have worked with Laurie, she has always been enthusiastic in trying new things for her client's benefit. She is one of our resident experts in eligibility determinations and all ESP staff look to her for interpretation or clarification. She is the first tribal services specialist to place a client in a private work experience position. She is also the first tribal services specialist to be actively involved in her local area 'one stop' local workforce board. Laurie is a valuable ESP employee."

Ticey wrote the following:

"Laurie has spent a lot of extra time and energy working on Increasing Your Success for our clients. This is above and beyond her job duty and is very beneficial for our clients. She is a workaholic and you will know this if you work with her."

Please join us in congratulating Laurie for continuing to do a great job in helping Siletz Tribal members.

General Manager Brenda Bremner presents Laurie Brown-Godfrey with a Pendleton blanket as Laurie accepts her Employee of the Year honors. See page 6 for more award winners.
