

Fisher Hired as Keno Manager

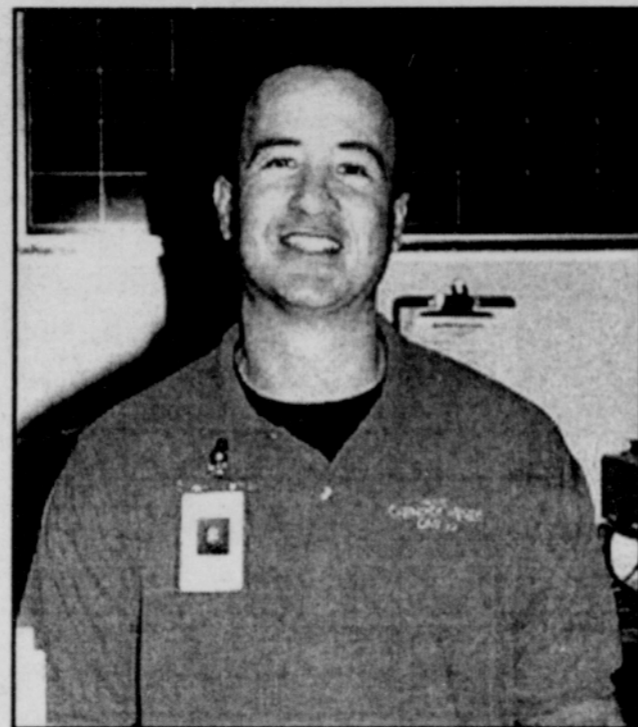

Siletz Tribal member Chris Fisher has been hired as the Keno manager for Chinook Winds Casino effective Oct. 23, 2000.

Fisher has been with Chinook Winds for five years and has held several positions, including cage supervisor; interim cage manager; guest services dual rate supervisor; assistant Keno/Bingo manager; and interim Keno/Bingo manager. Having held the position of assistant Keno manager, Fisher has firsthand knowledge of the program.

In the future, look forward to some very positive changes in Keno, including a Keno tournament, two cash giveaways in 2001, and special prizes for regular Keno players.

Fisher already has implemented new training techniques to ensure that employees are properly trained and feel comfortable with Keno before they start writing Keno tickets, as well as an employee incentive program.

As a member of the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians, Fisher stated, "I am very proud to be a Siletz Tribal member and very grateful to the Siletz Tribe for giving me the opportunity to do something I always dreamed of doing. I plan on making a positive impact on the Keno department and bringing the Keno revenues up in 2001.

Chris Fisher

"Chinook Winds Casino is a great place to work. The casino is giving many tribal members the opportunity to better themselves and provide a better quality of life for themselves and their families. I would like to thank all the tribal members who had the vision of Chinook Winds Casino and who have worked so hard over the years to get us to where we are today."

Try the New Fry Bread Pizza at the Chinook Winds Deli!

Winners of the February "$10,000 Presidents Day Cash Drawing, By George!" L to r: Linda Adams of Gleneden Beach, Ore., won a $1,000 gift certificate to the Factory Stores @ Lincoln City; Martha Worden of Neetsu, Ore., won a $1,000 Ultra Diamond pendant; and Karl Priest of Salem, Ore., won the $10,000 grand prize.

Leonard and Duran Face Off in Celebrity Events at Commotion at the Ocean II

Commotion at the Ocean II comes to Chinook Winds Casino & Convention Center on April 20-21. It features boxing legends Sugar Ray Leonard and Roberto Duran in "friendly competition" as part of a two-day championship boxing event. Boxing fans won't want to miss this "must see" event!

Meet Sugar Ray Leonard and Roberto Duran on April 20 and 21. They will appear at a Celebrity Party on April 20 from 6-9 p.m., complete with hors d'oeuvres, autographs, and photos. The party is open to all ages and costs $15.

On April 21, Leonard and Duran will take part in Celebrity Blackjack/Slot tournaments from noon to 5 p.m. Both events are open to the public. Entry fees are $25 for the Blackjack tournament with no re-buys and $20 for the Slot Tournament. Leonard and Duran also will make guest appearances at the fights.

The contenders' weigh-in will be held on April 20 at 3 p.m. and will be open to the public.

Doors open for the championship title fights at 5 p.m. on April 21 in the convention center, with undercard bouts beginning at 6 p.m.

The featured event and final bout of the night pits up and coming "Fast Hands" D.C., against local Q u a n d r y Ore., as they match for the IBA Middleweight Standing 5 feet 154 pounds, 23-Hands" Jones has a knockouts. He was a Olympic trials, losing a Fernando Vargas in the finals during their amateur careers. He also champion and won more than 150 fights.

boxing talent Gary Jones from Washington, fighter "Candy" Robertson of Portland, compete in a 12-round Intercontinental Jr. Championship title. 9 inches, weighing in at year-old Gary "Fast 17-1-0 record with nine finalist in the 1996 very close decision to after beating Vargas twice was a national amateur

As a professional, Jones got off to a great start by knocking out Drew Chaney in the first round of his pro debut. He went on to win his first 16 fights, including an impressive second-round knockout of tough veteran Francisco Mendez on the Vargas-Wright undercard televised on HBO from Chinook Winds Casino in December 1999.

Twenty-eight-year-old "Candy" Quandry Robertson has an 11-3-0 record with nine knockouts. Robertson started his professional boxing career in August 1997 against Steve Li. He knocked Li out in the first round and suddenly a local fighter from Portland became a promising young prospect.

He would go on to knock out his next four opponents in the first round. An eight-round decision against Augustine Renteria solidified Robertson's position as an emerging young star in the junior middleweight division. The 5 foot 10 inch, 154 pound fighter is anxious to show the Northwest what he can do.

The first title fight features two promising women boxers as they face off in a 10-round match, competing for the WIBF Jr. Middleweight World Championship title. Lisa Holewyne from Austin, Texas, will square off against Marischa Sjauwen Wa of Surinam.

Standing 5 feet 9 inches and weighing 140 pounds, the 35-year-old Holewyne's record stands at 12-7-1 with five knockouts. Marischa Sjauwen Wa stands 5 feet 5 inches, weighs in between 135-147 pounds, and has a 3-4-0 record with three knockouts.

Tiered seating is available, offering fans an unobstructed view of this exciting boxing event. Tickets are priced at $30, $50, $125, $150 and $200 for ringside seats. The boxing matches are for individuals age 21 and over.