Happy Anniversary to Tina and Jack. Marriage is an every-day work-in-progress and you two have been through many years together. Your marriage has brought two families together and I'm thankful for all the memories ... the giant Christmas tree we played around all night, going to pow-wows, Uncle Charlie, gaining a new sister and brother, Disneyland (I'll show you how to get dressed really fast!). May you live to be 102 together. Congratulations and many more!

Eagle's Cries

by Eddie E. Ehret

*My heart once caressing,
The sky so high,
For a second I thought,
I could even fly.
Back on two feet,
Isn't life so sweet.
This way which I fly,
No longer so high,
For the distant sounds,
Of an Eagle's Cry.
These distant whimpers,
On this night,
Is all it took,
To stop the flight.
With these distant cries,
Deep in flight,
I fear for another elder's plight.
My heart weeps with pain,
Perhaps this fate,
Was not in vain,
At least it will help,
To ease the pain.
With our elders crossing over,
Day by day,
The time has now come,
To learn their ways,
And help create,
Better days.
The first day,
Of the rest of our lives,
And I heard the distant sounds,
Of an Eagle's Cries.*
