Rock 'n' Roll With Sha Na Na

Sha Na Na will have a rockin' party at Chinook Winds on Sept. 21 and 22.

For three decades, this marvelous group of greasers has been dispensing rock 'n' roll with such fervor and style that every song they perform has virtually become theirs.

It was at Woodstock in 1969 followed by the Woodstock movie in 1970 that this be-boppin' a cappella group made its debut. Following those appearances, they became the singing sensation synonymous with the '50s, touring worldwide. Their success caused a rock 'n' roll revival, resulting in the nationally televised "Sha Na Na Show" that brought their music into America's living rooms for five years.

In 1978, Sha Na Na appeared as Johnny Casino and the Gamblers in the hit musical "Grease," which was re-released in 1997. The soundtrack of the movie put the group at the top of the charts both times.

Sha Na Na has released 40 albums and sold more than 20 million copies worldwide. Most recent releases include "The Sha Na Na 25th Anniversary Collection" (1994) and "Rock 'n' Roll Dance Party" (1998).

The high-energy performances of Sha Na Na bring the music and vitality of the '50s to life. Don't miss the party at Chinook Winds on Sept. 21 and 22. Show times are 8 p.m. Friday, 7 p.m. and 10 p.m. Saturday. Ticket prices range from $10 to $15, depending on seat location.
