

Su-'Zan Returns to Rogue River Restaurant

Su-'Zan is back by popular demand in the Rogue River Restaurant at Chinook Winds Casino on Wednesday through Saturday evenings from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m.

As her fingers dance across the keyboard of her white piano, Su-'Zan exudes elegance and creates a soothing style of dinner music that adds a flowing and mystical ambiance to the evening meal. Romantic, lilting tones float through the air, perfect harmonies blending with the aroma of the delectable entries produced by the chef.

Su-'Zan's experience and talent are evident in her presentation. Her repertoire includes Broadway musicals, Latin love songs, old standards and new, everything from Frank Sinatra to Elton John. She's traveled extensively and been employed in a wide variety of capacities.

In Puerto Rico, she was a pianist, piano instructor, talent coordinator, and entertainment and stage director. In Hawaii, she opened for celebrity concerts, was a band leader, special events director/producer, and youth talent director. She's been an assistant with Dick Clark Productions and also to Englebert Humperdinck, David Hasselhoff, and Jane Kennedy. In addition to all of that, Su-'Zan spent time as a model and fashion director.

Su-'Zan is a certified image specialist-consultant with specialized training in music, psychology, sociology, self-awareness, image, fitness, nutrition, and related fields. All of this contributes to the unsurpassed quality of the music she performs.

Su-'Zan currently has two CDs, "Journey To Serenity" and "Reflections Of Love," on sale at the Chinook Winds Gift Shop.

Renee Metcalf Manages Bingo

Siletz Tribal member Renee Metcalf, interim assistant Bingo manager since October 2000, has been hired as the Bingo manager for Chinook Winds Casino.

Over the past 11 years, Renee has worked for the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians in numerous capacities, including tribal administration and the Siletz Tribal Smokehouse. She started working for Chinook Winds in the temporary facility in January 1996. Formerly a member of the Human

Renee Metcalf

Resources Department, Renee has established herself as a people person, becoming a friendly face and a person with whom Chinook Winds guests enjoy coming into contact.

As a member of the Siletz Tribe, Renee stated, "I have been given an excellent opportunity to grow and truly feel that I am accomplishing major life goals. My experiences are a great example of tribal enterprises and the direct positive impacts they can have on tribal membership, when given the chance."

In the brief time that Renee has managed the Bingo program, a number of exciting changes have taken place, including the Las Vegas World Bingo promotion, the All U Can Play Bingo sessions, and the monthly High Stakes Bingo specials. Renee also is responsible for spearheading the monthly Benefit Bingo fund-raisers that have contributed more than $10,000 in 2001 to local charities that benefit youth and their various athletic activities.
