

Chinook Winds Contributes to American Red Cross

On Dec. 4, Delores Pigsley, chairman of the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians, and Jim Kikumoto, general manager of Chinook Winds Casino, presented Peter Benjamin, chairman of the local chapter of the American Red Cross, with a check for $3,305 on behalf of Chinook Winds Casino.

The funds were raised through the collection of donations from casino guests, staff members, and the casino to benefit the survivors of the victims of the Sept. 11 tragedy in New York.

On Sept. 13, just two days after the terrorist attacks on the Pentagon and the twin towers of the World Trade Center, Chinook Winds sponsored a blood drive that collected 57 units of blood donated by staff members and guests.

Tribal Chairman Delores Pigsley stated, "We (the tribe and the casino) are proud to be able to do our part to assist those in need during these difficult times. This is part of our ongoing commitment to improve the quality of life of those less fortunate. It is gratifying to be a business partner in this community, which has such a strong commitment to helping others."

Get Insurance While Playing Poker

During January and February, all players who buy into our live games for $100 will receive insurance, just in case you lose all of your buy-in. That's right, lose your buy-in and we'll give you $30 to try and get your money back.

All we ask is that you play for one more hour. If you cash out prior to one hour, you must repay the insurance premium of $30, providing it too was not lost. Everyone who qualifies for the insurance premium will be allowed to collect this once per day only.

Where else can you play that gives you insurance on your poker losses? Come to the Oregon Coast and be covered for your losses! Everyone is welcome in Oregon's friendliest poker room, where poker meets the beach.

The poker room at Chinook Winds Casino offers players a special discounted menu in the deli for their convenience while playing. The friendly staff will be happy to serve you at any time. We're here to ensure that you have the most memorable and fun time possible while playing at Chinook Winds.
