Siletz Tribe Cancels Spring Competition Pow-Wow

The Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians of Oregon's Spring Competition Pow-Wow, held annually in late March, has been canceled.

The Siletz Tribe and Chinook Winds Casino extend thanks to everyone for their support over the past four years, which made the pow-wow a phenomenal success. Unfortunately, even though the casino has the largest convention center on the Oregon coast, the space is not large enough to meet the expanding needs of the pow-wow, which surpassed the available space in its fourth year.
