Central Coast Sportsman's Show

The inaugural Central Coast Sportsman's Show is scheduled for April 12-14 at Chinook Winds Casino. This is the only event of its kind on the Oregon coast that's open to the public. It brings everything necessary for all of the great activities that outdoor enthusiasts love – salmon and steelhead fishing, ATVs, personal watercraft and boats, resorts and lodges, trail/hunting and fishing guides, fly fishing, outfitters of all types, archery, and much, much more!

In addition to the enormous array of sporting goods, fly fishing demonstrations, outdoor clothing, and a collection of western art will be available.

Gregory Hughes of Global Marketing Concepts is promoting the show, which is modeled after the Portland Sportsman's Show and includes many of the same kinds of products. He believes the coast will be a big draw for a sportsman's show because it's a destination spot oriented toward outdoor activities.

Hours are 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. on April 12, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on April 13, and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on April 14. Admission is $5 for adults, children 10 and under admitted free.

Celebrity Star Search Karaoke began its third eight-week competition at Chinook Winds' Rogue River Lounge on Feb. 27.

To compete, dress the part of your favorite singer and perform one of his/her hits! Free registration begins at 8 p.m. every Wednesday and the contest itself runs from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Participants will be judged on costume originality, performance, talent, and audience applause. Each weekly winner will have his/her name in the local papers and receive $25 plus assorted prizes.
