To Laura, a great friend and cousin, on her birthday on March 30 – The dictionary defines friend as one attached to another by affection or esteem; one that is not hostile; one that is of the same nation, party or group; a favored companion.

You are these and a whole lot more to many more than just myself. For you, my friend, these are only a few of the things that I can think of to describe you. You are caring and goodhearted, and those are things that I have never before found in a friend. I wish you all the happiness you can possibly wish for on your birthday.

I love you always, my friend and my family, Selina
