

Mama and Daddy would like to wish Logan and Cecillie Butler a very big and happy birthday to you both! Cecillie will turn 4 on June 13 and Logan will turn 6 on June 27. We pray that the Lord continues to bless and keep both of you safe and happy throughout your youth. It's a blessing to have both of you, along with your brother and sister, in our lives. We also want to wish both of you happiness and lots of fun as we get ready to head to Disneyland. Hope you two have the time of your life!

In my addictive days, I couldn't wait to get off work so that I could have a beer. That's what got me through the day, knowing that I had a drink waiting for me. That's what I worked for. Not to pay my bills, but to have money to drink on or buy drugs with.

I would do just about anything to get a drink. When I had no money, I would ask someone to borrow money. If they said no, I would get angry with them. I would even hate them sometimes. Who needs them anyway.

Sheri, my angel – Just wanted to let you know that I love you very much and I'm always thinking of you! I'm almost home, Baby.

Love you always and forever,
7-7-7 Michael D. 1-4-3 your man for life

Me – Then and Now by Dan Sullivan Jr.

It didn't matter to me the reason they said no, even if they had no money to lend. I looked forward to that high because when I was on that level, I had no fears or cares at all.

Today, I realize that I was running from those fears and didn't want to care about anything or anyone, even myself. All that mattered to me, and all I cared about, was that high. It didn't matter who I hurt or how I hurt them, as long as I got to that level.

Daddy, you are always there for us. We love you very much, so on this day, June 16, we want you to know that you are the best! Happy Father's Day.

Love, Miakoda and Donovan

Happy Father's Day to my brother, Michael. I love you and can't wait to see you very soon!

But today I have a different outlook on life because I know that even my lowest low, no matter the reason, is better than my highest high in my days as an addict. Today, I know that no matter how low I get, I know I can go to bed and not wake up sick. That is enough for me.

I can be proud of who I am. Today, I can honestly say that I love myself. And that feeling of loving myself is a better high than any drug could ever bring me.
