

Mike Spencer 2002 – Hey, can't spell your whole name. Happy Birthday! Thanks for your help with my wild Indians. Thinking of you.

Love – Violet, Ashley, Delbert, Rodney, Ginny, Jackie, Rick, Cassie, Marie, Virgil, Santos, Marlita, Kyle, Jacob, Dianne, and the Arliss clan

Mike Spencer – I love you 'til the end of time, some for you other ones.
Love, Virginia Slonicker, your mom

My heart goes out to the Mason family. We have lost another one of our beloved family members, Paul Mason. We all will miss him so very much. He was liked and loved by many.

Tenderly, may time heal your sorrow; gently may friends and family heal your pain; softly may peace replace your heartache; and may the warmest memories of Paul remain in our hearts forever.

Happy 27th Birthday, Jack Strong! We're getting closer to 30! And Happy Wedding Anniversary to Miranda and Jack Strong. You two were and always will be meant for each other.

From, Ang, Lyn, Jon, Seth, and Ken Jr.

Happy Birthday to my beautiful son, Dwayne UpChurch/Kelso. You are always in my mind and heart. You are not getting older, dear, just wiser.

Love you, Mom aka Shelley UpChurch/Lawson

Happy 4th Birthday to my Cheney Bug on July 6. Auntie can't believe that you are 4 years old. It seems like yesterday that you were a baby and here you are, growing up so fast.

Happy 3rd Birthday to Emily Mason in Hood River on July 1. Auntie misses you and wishes she could see you more often.

I can't believe my girls are growing up so fast.

With a lot of love and kisses for you both, Auntie Wee-oo

Our family will greatly miss Pat Duncan. We loved her very much. She had an irrepressible spirit and was filled with love for her family and the tribe. Her work for the tribe was honorable. We will forever be grateful for her generosity, courage, laughter, and love that she shared so effortlessly.

The Journey

Respectfully, Eva E. Clayton

The time we are gifted on Mother Earth has many highways and by-ways. It is up to us to seek out, make the most of what comes our way.

Some are along for the ride, others want to drive. Whatever the adventure, one must be respectful of the others who have to share the same trail.

I believe in the saying, "Make life a journey, not a destination." Pat's life was not a destination but one of a journey.

To Pat's family, sun rise, sun sets. Rainbows will come again. This I know.

Tribal member Charles Patrick Ben and Amber Lynn Taylor were joined in marriage March 3, 2002, at the Siletz Tribal Community Center.

Amber's attendants were maid of honor Crystal Ben and bridesmaid Tamara Westbrook, and the flower girl was the bride's daughter, Michaela Taylor. Charles' attendants were best man Richard Buel and groomsman Patrick Darula, and the ring bearer was the bride's son, R.J. Taylor. The song Unchained Melody was sung by Nolan Butler.

Charles is the son of Raymond and Pamela Ben, grandson of the late Archie and Victoria Ben and Dawn Kemp and Robert Abernathy. Amber is the daughter of Ted and Sandy Darula, granddaughter of Glenna Neunkerk and the late Dave Shoemaker, all of Onalaska, Wash., and Patricia Jolles and the late John Darula of Sacramento, Calif.

Charles and Amber are making Toledo their home, along with their son, Jayden.

Family and friends – I would like to thank Scott Paul and Patty for believing in my daughter, helping her, encouraging her, and pushing her to achieve. I would also like to thank Brandon Hammett for being there for my daughter through all her tough times, helping her study, and being a friend.

I would also like to thank my family, aunts, uncles, cousins, and brothers for always being there for my daughter. I would also like to thank Aimee, Angela, and Shari for being such good friends. That is what life is all about, family and friends always being there when you need them.

Thank you. We love you all.
Sylvia

Misty Fisher, daughter of Chuck Fisher of Siletz, Ore., and Robbi Eustachy of Springfield, Ore., is engaged to marry James Butt, son of Pam Butt of Portland, Ore. The wedding will be held at 4 p.m. on Aug. 17, 2002, in their backyard in Springfield. They look forward to a honeymoon in Hawaii!

Memories – Happy Birthday, Dad (Alton I. Butler)!

All the rides he used to like to take south, down to visit Delmer Pre and the kids; that was one of his favorites. Springfield to visit Aunty Angeline, Easters, McKnights, and John and Rose; another one of his favorites. Grand Ronde to visit Nat, Louis, and the kids. Dallas to Elaine and the kids, Queens and her family, or just up the hill to Charlie and Sally's. Find Buck wherever he might be camping and picking fern. I remember Dad telling me that cruising to California was just taking a ride in the old days.

I love and miss my dad. He would be proud of you, Sarah. I am thankful for all my treasures I have in my memory.

Love you lots, Sylvia and kids
