A flower is a flower is a flower! Donny gave this flower to Maude one afternoon before we left for our elders meeting at the casino. She held it in her hand all through the afternoon and evening until we brought her home. Farewell, Donny; we will miss you greatly.

Youth Enjoy Another Rafting Trip

The Summer Youth Employment Program organized a raft trip on the McKenzie River in August. Special thanks to George Nagel, Robert Kentta, and Kathy Kentta for serving as guides; and to Joyce Retherford and Selene Rilatos for transportation. The group put in at Finn Rock, then floated between four and five hours to Helfrick Park.

As usual, the guides stressed safety prior to anyone getting into the rafts. This included instructions in wearing life vests properly and proper swimming actions if thrown from the raft.

EPA Public Comment Period Reopened on Air Quality Rules

In response to citizen requests, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) is reopening the public comment period for the Proposed Air Quality Rules for Idaho, Oregon, and Washington Indian Reservations until Oct. 10, 2002.

Time for questions: EPA staff will be available to provide more information about the rule proposal and to answer questions on Sept. 10, 2002, from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m., at Liberty Theater, 211 S. Toppenish Ave., Toppenish, Wash.

Public Hearing: EPA will host a public hearing to accept oral and written comments on this air quality rule proposal on Sept. 10, 2002, from 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., at Liberty Theater, 211 S. Toppenish Ave., Toppenish, Wash. People wishing to provide oral comment will be called upon in the order in which they sign in.

Written comments must be received no later than Oct. 10, 2002. Please send your comments to David Bray, Office of Air Quality (OAQ-107), U.S. EPA Region 10, 1200 Sixth Ave., Seattle, WA 98101-1128.

These rules would establish EPA air quality protection on Indian reservations in Idaho, Oregon, and Washington where no EPA-approved rules currently exist. The rules would protect all residents within reservation boundaries by controlling emissions from sources located within reservations in a manner similar to that used for sources located outside reservations.

The rules include a program for identifying air pollution sources, procedures to follow during air pollution emergencies, rules for open burning, and some emission limitations for industrial sources. Copies of the proposed rules are available by calling 206-553-0977, or on the Web at <http://www.epa.gov/r10earth/tribalairrules.htm>.

For people with disabilities: To make requests for reasonable accommodations, please contact G.R. Malekpour immediately, at 1-800-424-4372, ext. 0977 (voice). TTY/TDD users: Please call the Federal Relay Service at 1-800-877-8339, and tell them you want to contact G.R. Malekpour at EPA at the phone number listed for him above.
