Third Annual Antique Show Set

For more than a decade, Lincoln City has been the place to be in February! Lincoln City's first Antique Week, created and developed by local antique merchants, the North Lincoln County Historical Museum, and the Lincoln City Visitor & Convention Bureau, was held in 1991 and included citywide antique store sales and historical tours.

Thirteen years later, Lincoln City is still the place to be in February, when Antique Week is held again on Feb. 7-17, 2003. Since its inception, more activities and participants have been added each year. In addition to citywide sales at more than 80 dealers in 10 shops and eight antique malls, Antique Week has grown to offer education and entertainment for all interests and ages.

As part of Antique Week, Chinook Winds Casino & Convention Center will host the third annual Oregon Coast Antiques & Collectibles Show on Feb. 14-16. During the three-day event, antiques and collectibles of all kinds will be available for sale in the 20,000-square-foot convention center located on the upper floor of Chinook Winds Casino.

A glass exhibition and seminar takes place on Feb. 14 from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. and Feb. 15 from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. Live music will be featured throughout the show, as well as giveaways and raffles. Hours are Feb. 14, 3 p.m. to 8 p.m.; Feb. 15, noon to 8 p.m.; and Feb. 16, noon to 4 p.m.

Admission is free. Tables for the sale are available for both dealers and individuals. Call Steve at 541-996-5925 for details and to reserve your space.

Chinook Winds' featured entertainment following the antique show will be Comedy on the Coast, beginning at 8 p.m. all three nights. Tickets are $12.

Other activities taking place in Lincoln City include the Union 50 Club flea market, featuring collectibles; a live vaudeville show at Theatre West; sidewalk sales at the Factory Stores @ Lincoln City and other participating merchants; an old-time kids carnival, including a cake walk; and museum exhibits and demonstrations.

Celebrate Mardi Gras

Chinook Winds is hosting a Mardi Gras celebration on Feb. 21-22 from 4 p.m. to 11 p.m. and Feb. 23 from 2 p.m. to 9 p.m. No admission will be charged to the festivities, which take place in the convention center.

Gator Bait and The Bill Bachmann Dixieland Jazz Band (formerly of the New Orleans Pete Fountain band) will provide live entertainment. Enjoy a themed food court and refreshments from a no-host bar featuring specialty drinks.

The festive atmosphere will be topped off with beads and party favors. A daily drawing for a trip for two to New Orleans or a cash prize will take place on the gaming floor.

The Gatlin Brothers

Larry Gatlin and The Gatlin Brothers to Perform

It's time to get back to the country with the music of Larry Gatlin and The Gatlin Brothers at Chinook Winds Casino on Feb. 28 and March 1.

For the past four decades, Larry Gatlin and The Gatlin Brothers have traveled from Texas around the world, performing their brand of music for millions of fans through live concerts and television. Their journey has taken them to the great concert halls of America, sharing the harmony and great songs for which they are so famous.

Larry, an accomplished songwriter, has written some of country music's greatest songs for Elvis Presley, Dottie West, Johnny Cash, and Anne Murray, just to name a few. Barbra Streisand, Tom Jones, and Johnny Mathis also have recorded his songs, garnering him respect in both the country and pop fields. Along with his brothers, Steve and Rudy, he's living his dream to sing together with them.

Steve has starred in several self-produced productions in Myrtle Beach, S.C., receiving rave reviews. These productions have allowed him to step out and showcase his own style of music and comedy. His first love, however, has always been singing with his brothers.

Back in Texas, Rudy is busy on the speaker's circuit as well as lending his name to and playing on the Celebrity Golf Tour. In the past, he starred in the hit musical Oklahoma and has taken the lead in organizing many of the brothers' charity events. He has a great love for children, as do all the brothers, and nowhere has this been better displayed than in his 20 years of tireless service to the Gatlin Brothers MDA Golf Tournament in Dallas, Texas.

The Gatlin Brothers have recorded more than 25 albums, including country, gospel, and big band. They have appeared on more than 75 national TV shows, toured internationally, and endorsed products such as American Express, Kentucky Fried Chicken, Dr. Pepper, and Amoco. Most recently, they sang at the White House for President George W. Bush, a long-time friend.

Their awards and accomplishments are many, but their legacy will be their God-given talent to entertain fans around the world, inspiring them to reach for their own dreams, just as the brothers did years ago in Abilene, Texas.

Don't miss the opportunity to see these legendary entertainers in person when they perform at Chinook Winds Casino. Show time for both nights is 8 p.m. Tickets are $25-$40, depending on seat location.
