

Play Palace Presents "Parents Night Out!"

Every Wednesday night throughout the school year, all parents are welcome to drop off their child/children between 6:30 p.m. and 9 p.m. to stay for two and one-half hours for $4.95.

This special "Parents Night Out" promotional offer lets parents use the child care facility for two hours instead of the regular four-hour minimum. In the two hours, parents can go to the beach, see a movie, go back to the house for a quiet evening, go shopping, or go to Chinook Winds Casino. Best of all, the children can be home and in bed on time on a school night.

Amateur Boxing Returns with Battle at the Beach II

Chinook Winds Casino & Convention Center presents Battle at the Beach II, Olympic-style amateur boxing, on March 7.

It's back by popular demand! The first Battle at the Beach in November 2002 took place before a packed house. So many requests came in for a repeat that Chinook Winds will host another boxing extravaganza that's sanctioned by USA Boxing, the national governing body for all amateur boxing in the U.S. Senior youth boxers, including some Olympic hopefuls, age 11 and up will be featured at this event. The fight card is nearly set for 10 bouts of three or four rounds of one or two minutes each.

One of the bouts will feature two women. Angel Bovee from New York is ranked No. 1 in the nation and won the U.S. Championships this year. She'll go up against national Golden Gloves champion Molly McConnell from Portland, Ore., who is ranked No. 2 in the nation. With the exception of Angel, all other contenders hail from Oregon, Washington, and Idaho.

Battle at the Beach II will feature several other bouts of special interest. The first match pits D.J. Dominguez against Eric Sanchez, two 11-year-olds fighting at 90 pounds. These two youngsters have fought twice in the past and are evenly paired.

In the bantamweight category, Troy Wohosky is scheduled to fight

Adrian Brown. Brown, who is stationed at Fort Lewis, is the 2003 winner of the All-Army Championships.

Brauilo Lopez, who previously fought at Chinook Winds, will face Will Gates in a grudge match. Lopez and Gates are junior welterweights.

Super heavyweights Mike Wilson (240 pounds) will compete against 230-pound Joe Leapai. Wilson was an alternate for the 2000 Olympic team. The fight between lightweights Cordell Barbour and Frankie Urrabazo is a sure crowd pleaser. Barbour is ranked No. 10 in the country in the lightweight (132 pound) division and Urrabazo has been ranked No. 3 for the past three years at feather weight (125 pounds).

At least four of these up-and-coming boxers fought at the first Battle at the Beach. Venues such as this help establish youth boxing records for consideration as Olympic contenders.

Local radio personality Roger Robertson will be the ring announcer for this night of excitement.

Battle at the Beach II is open to people age 21 and over, with tickets priced at an affordable $10 for general admission and $20 for ringside seats. A no-host bar and food court will be available. Doors open at 6 p.m. and the boxing begins at 7 p.m.

Thank You for Helping ...

Dear Friends at Chinook Winds:

Once again the holiday season is behind us. I am writing to thank you on behalf of our entire office staff and the foster children of Lincoln County for your outstanding efforts of putting up a Christmas tree, making tags, and collecting gifts for several foster children from this county.

The event took place on Dec. 23, 2002. It was held at The Embarcadero in Newport because of the central location. Because our population of foster children has grown, the event was held in both parts of the ballroom, as opposed to half of it partitioned off. Santa arrived and he posed for a picture with each child and then presented them with a gift. Most of those gifts came from Chinook Winds.

Thank you so much for your eagerness to help. For years, you've been there, ready and willing to help. First you call us, eager to get name tags made for the tree, so your employees can dig deep into their pockets in difficult times to help children that they don't even know. That is incredibly touching, and we so appreciate it! We do not take it for granted.

We hope you and yours have a happy successful New Year. Thanks so much from all of us! It's always a joy working with you.

Sincerely,

Julie Rhoades, Social Service
Assistant, Dept. of Social Services

Comedy on the Coast Continues

Comedy on the Coast is set for March 14-15 and features Art Krug as the opening act, with Russ T. Nailz as the headliner and Susan Rice as the featured comedian in a 90-minute show.

A Portland native, Krug has the calm demeanor of the guy next door – the one who always seemed so normal. But when he takes the stage, that gives way to a boiling comic spirit and a uniquely creative mind that have made him one of the "funniest ever to come out of the Northwest," according to Entertainment Scene magazine.

His TV credits include Showtime's Comedy Club, PM Magazine, AM Northwest, Two at Four, CBS News at Noon, and Funny Business as well as numerous commercials. Krug has traveled across the U.S. and Canada for the last 19 years, performing at The Improv, Comedy Underground, Punchlines, The Last Laugh, Comedy Cellar, and The Riviera in Las Vegas.

Twenty years as a pro give Nailz a natural on-stage persona. He greeted Southern Californians on 91X FM radio every morning for nearly 10 years. His mix of original current event jokes, character voices, and special effects produced many memorable on-air bits. He also has appeared in a few TV movies and several comedy shows.

Nailz has a unique talent for finding the proper material to perform for each audience he faces. This multi-talented comedian has developed many interesting characters, which he incorporates into his comedy routine. Comedy club audiences across the nation can attest to the music, mirth, and madcap fun enjoyed when Nailz is onstage.

Rice is funny, familiar, and female. People consider her part of the family. She twists daily conversations and experiences so that you walk away with a whole new perspective on your own relatives.

Rice, a Pacific Northwest native, began her comedy career in college. Her love of performing arts began in San Diego, then grew in Portland, Ore., where she worked in banking and pursued acting. She discovered comedy at the The Leaky Roof Tavern and from the moment she stepped on stage, she knew she had found her career.

For 15 years, she's been a professional stand-up comedian and has had the privilege of performing in every state of the union and to every state of mind.

Television appearances include An Evening at the Improv, Comedy Central, and Comedy Club Network. Comedy club bookings include Catch a Rising Star, The Ice House, Indianapolis Comedy Connection, Igby's, The Laff Stops, The Improve, and The Laugh Factory.

Doors open at 7:30 p.m.; the show begins at 8 p.m. A no-host bar will be available. Tickets are $12.
