Miss Native American Oregon Pageant Coming in August

The Miss Native American Oregon Scholarship Program, affiliated with the Miss Oregon organization, will hold its first competition at Chinook Winds Casino on August 15-18. The pageant is endorsed by Miss America 2002, Katie Harmon, and the Miss America Foundation.

To be eligible to compete, the applicant must be a young Native American woman 17 to 23 years old, have never been married, be enrolled in a college or university or plan to continue secondary education, be a resident of Oregon, be an enrolled member of a federally recognized tribe, have never been convicted of any criminal offense, and have no criminal charges currently pending.

The person who wins the Miss Native American Oregon title becomes eligible to compete for the title of Miss Oregon 2004 in Seaside, Ore., in July 2004, with the goal of competing for the Miss America 2005 title in September 2004 in Atlantic City, N.J.

The Native American Oregon Program offers a minimum of $4,200 in scholarship money. It gives contestants a forum to raise awareness of important social issues. They must clearly define an issue to which they are committed and for which each will be an activist during her year of service.

Every year, the Miss Oregon Scholarship Program offers more than $100,000 in cash and in-kind tuition scholarships. Scholarships for academic achievement, community service, talent, fitness, speaking skills, and more are available to all competitors.

The four competition categories of the Miss Native American Oregon are interview, evening wear, talent and lifestyle, and fitness in swimsuit.
