

Miss Native American Oregon Pageant Will Hold First Competition, Award Scholarships

The Miss Native American Oregon Scholarship Program, affiliated with the Miss Oregon organization, will hold its first competition at Chinook Winds Casino on August 15-18. The pageant is endorsed by Miss America 2002, Katie Harmon, and the Miss America Foundation.

To be eligible to compete, the applicant must be a young Native American woman 17 to 23 years old, have never been married, be enrolled in a college or university or plan to continue secondary education, be a resident of Oregon, be an enrolled member of a federally recognized tribe, have never been convicted of any criminal offense, and have no criminal charges currently pending

The person who wins the Miss Native American Oregon title becomes eligible to compete for the title of Miss Oregon 2004 in Seaside, Ore., in July 2004, with the goal of competing for the Miss America 2005 title in September 2004 in Atlantic City, N.J.

The Native American Oregon Program offers a minimum of $4,200 in scholarship money. It gives contestants a forum to raise awareness of important social issues. They must clearly define an issue to which they are committed and for which each will be an activist during her year of service.

Every year, the Miss Oregon Scholarship Program offers more than $100,000 in cash and in-kind tuition scholarships. Scholarships for academic achievement, community service, talent, fitness, speaking skills, and more are available to all competitors.

The four competition categories of the Miss Native American Oregon are interview, evening wear, talent and lifestyle, and fitness in swimsuit.

Celebrate Labor Day Weekend with Comedy

Comedy on the Coast is set for Aug. 29-31 at Chinook Winds Casino. These three nights of fun feature a trio of comedians – Tim Haldeman, Kenny Bob Davis, and Michael Pace – all in return engagements.

Kenny Bob Davis is a veteran comedian and singer who plays guitar. He's also a seasoned actor, comedy writer, and improvisation specialist who loves to golf, rides motorcycles, and do cartoon voices. He's appeared in movies and on television in Mad TV, Murder She Wrote, and The Comedy Shop.

Davis has been described as "a very hip countrified George Carlin." He's from Burbank, Calif., but most people think he's from Texas. Because he incorporates music with his comedy, it's hard to tell if he's a singing comedian or a comic singer. He's opened for such performers as Kenny Rogers, Larry Gatlin, Vince Gill, and Willie Nelson. He's a regular in Las Vegas and Lake Tahoe, and does many corporate events.

Whether you know it or not, you've probably seen Tim Haldeman. Among his credits are his engagements at the original Improvisation in Hollywood and its satellite clubs nationwide. You've seen him on A&E's Evening at the Improv, and Showtime's Comedy Club Network. He's also shared the stage with B.B. King, Natalie Cole, and Simply Red.

A pliable face sets Haldeman apart from the crowd. His facial expressions are to punch lines what Silly Putty is to comic strips. An audience can't miss his point when he starts rolling his eyes.

Michael Pace has appeared in more than 100 television shows and movies, including The West Wing, Malcolm in the Middle, ER, Once and Again, The Drew Carey Show, Sabrina The Teenage Witch, and Third Rock From The Sun.

Pace has developed a stand-up routine that he's performed across the country, including sold-out shows in Las Vegas and Atlantic City.

Four shows are scheduled: 9 p.m. on Aug. 29 and Aug. 31, and 7 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. on Aug. 30. A no-host bar will be available. Tickets, priced at $12, are available at the box office.
